'Can't Remember'

Brewster Quizzed On Expense Tabs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank W. Brewster, West Coast Teamsters Union boss, said today "I can't remember" whether the son of his race horse trainer traveled by air at the union's expense.

Robert F. Kennedy, counsel to the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, showed Brewster documents which he said indicated that a "Bobby Eisen" made trips, one costing $46.09 and another $55.22—by air in California that were charged to the union.

Remembers Son

Brewster said his former horse trainer, Mel Eisen, has a son named Bobby Eisen, but that "I can't remember" whether the son as well as the father traveled at union expense.

The testimony marked the start of the fourth week and 13th day of public hearings by the committee.

In advance of the session, Kennedy told reporters that the questioning of Brewster might have a "vital" bearing on a later inquiry involving President Dave Beck of the Teamsters Union.

Kennedy also said Beck's story of borrowing some $300,000 to $400,000 of union funds "is not the same as our information."

Trainer 3 or 4 Years

Brewster said Mel Eisen had been his trainer for three or four years, sometimes doing side jobs of union work, and finally "8 to 11 months ago," shifted over to the union's payroll as a $150 a week organizer.

He said Eisen senior no longer was on his own stable payroll at that time.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) asked whether it would be true that prior to eight to 11 months ago, the union paid Eisen "no salary or compensation."

Brewster said that was correct.

Brewster was indicted Monday by a federal grand jury on contempt of Congress charges along with Vice President Einar Mohn and two lesser union officials. All four were accused of having contemptuously refused to answer questions in a prior inquiry conducted in January by the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

Both Brewster and Mohn challenged the authority of the subcommittee, which started the probe since taken over by the special committee.

Said Money Paid Back

Under investigation by another federal grand jury was still another vice president of the Teamsters, James R. Hoffa, accused of bribing a rackets investigating committee staff lawyer to provide him information from committee files.

Beck said in a television interview Sunday he had borrowed $300,000 to $400,000 of union funds some years ago without interest.

Warns of Grass Blazes

Fire Chief Issues Plea For Added Precautions

Small fires can be costly, even though they involve little or no loss in themselves, Fire Chief Owen A. Sifritt stressed today in pointing out that the 23 grass fires extinguished by the department already this month have cost taxpayers approximately $600.

The Marion Fire Department, the chief noted, has traveled a total of 158 miles to extinguish these grass fires which in many cases are termed "no loss" blazes.

He indicated that the majority of these grass fires has been caused by carelessness and resulted in extra wear on the fire fighting apparatus, trucks and even tremendous cost of fuel.

THE $600 FIGURE represents cost of fuel and depreciation without even considering man hours, Chief Sifritt said. Including man hours, the cost of the 23 grass fires would approximate $1,150, he said.

To extinguish these blazes the department has spent a total of 9 hours and 24 minutes. In most cases apparatus from more than one station was involved.

The chief pointed out that each time the equipment is tied up for a "no loss" grass fire, many homes and businesses are placed in jeopardy, should a fire of sizeable proportions break out there.

Not to be forgotten also is the fact that grass fires often are hard to control if the department can not drive the truck to the scene, facilitating the use of water.

MANY TOWNSHIP fires for example, have required cruder methods of fire fighting such as brooms, shovels and small extinguishers because they were in an isolated field where it was impossible to get to them with the truck, the chief said.

Not all of the fires were confined to the lots or fields where they started. In a few cases they spread to buildings or adjoining property, doing considerable damage, Chief Sifritt added. He noted the 23 grass fires this month have incurred a $1,600 loss as a result of the flames spreading beyond grass..

IT WAS emphasized that attending rubbish fires is not enough. During dry weather and windy conditions such as found throughout March, a single spark is often sufficient to set an entire lot ablaze.

The chief stressed therefore, that March weather requires special attention in burning papers or rubbish. The blaze not only should be attended, but fire extinguishing material should be within reaching distance, should the need for its use arise.

He suggested that a broom, shovel or even bucket of water be placed near the fire for use in case it should get out of control. These objects are found in nearly every household.

Use of the home firefighting equipment should prevent the needless spread of fires, the chief indicated.

Firefighting is the job of every citizen as well as the fire department, he added. And with proper precautions many grass fires can be prevented and thus many more tax dollars saved, Chief Sifritt asserted.

30 Killed in Algeria

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—At least 30 persons lost their lives during the past 24 hours in rebel attacks throughout strife-torn Algeria, French sources reported today. French troops struck back in several sectors. They claimed some 50 rebels killed in the Constantine area in the east and 36 near Orleansville in the west.

Egypt's New Canal Rules Given World

Secret Details Sent Through Diplomatic Channels to Nations

CAIRO (AP)—Still gaining ground in Gaza, Egypt has laid on the line the methods she intends to follow in operating the Suez Canal after its reopening.

President Nasser's government sent a memorandum to all foreign nations through diplomatic channels Monday night emphasizing the Egyptian approach to this issue.

Details Secret

Details were secret. But the government has already made clear its position that all tolls must be paid to Egyptian authorities, all ships will be subject to Egyptian laws during transit and that Israel will continue to be barred as an enemy nation.

Foreign embassy spokesmen refused to make public the memorandum, saying "that must come from the Egyptian side."

Egypt's Suez Canal Authority declined comment, saying the memorandum involved high level policy and was "outside our jurisdiction."

A canal authority spokesman said, however, Egypt intends to give 15 days notice before reopening the canal.

Lt. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, boss of the U. N. salvage fleet, has estimated the channel will be cleared for vessels of maximum tonnage by April 10.

Wants Vessels Replaced

The authority's managing director, Col. Mahmoud Yunes, declared Monday Egypt expects the United Nations to replace missing dredges and tugboats as well as navigational aids.

The spokesman said this was not a delay to the opening, but the craft were needed to assure smooth navigation.

"Yunes was not referring to the opening of the canal," the spokesman said. "He referred to the smooth operation."

Most of the canal dredging equipment was destroyed or scuttled during the fighting last November. Only three dredges are working at present. Very little silting has occurred during the canal's period of idleness, but silt is expected to become a big problem when ship's propellers start stirring up the bottom again in

Soviets' Party Chief Calls for Mideast Talks

MOSCOW (AP) — Russian Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev has called for a Middle East conference as an immediate step toward relaxing world tensions.

He did not name the countries he thought should participate, but he apparently had in mind something similar to the 1954 big power Geneva conference on Indochina.

Khrushchev said that meeting eased world tensions for a time.

The party leader's statement was made in reply to questions from the Grand Rapids (Mich.) Herald. The exchange was given prominent front-page space in today's Moscow newspapers.

Responding to the letter from Herald Managing Editor Charles L. Clapp, Khrushchev declared a U. S. "policy of strength" is endangering world peace.

He called for better U.S.-Russian relations to reduce international tension.

"We are for relieving international tension and improving Soviet-American relations because we believe that this corresponds to the interests of the Soviet as well as the American people" he said.

The statements, repeating remarks made previously by Khrushchev and other Russian leaders, were included in a 3¼-page letter handed to Clapp at Washington Saturday by Soviet TANGLED WRECKAGE. Derailment of these Pennsylvania Railroad coal cars Monday afternoon caused damage estimated between $380,000 and $400,000. No one was injured as the train ripped up nearly 875 feet of track about one mile north of Waldo. Of the 18 cars derailed, 12 were a total loss, according to Darel DeVore, district track supervisor. Cause of derailment had not been determined. The train was bound from Columbus to Sandusky.

Coal Spilled, Track Torn Up in Crash

Twelve Freight Units Destroyed; Cause of Mishap Undetermined

Derailment of 18 Pennsylvania Railroad freight cars about one mile north of Waldo Monday afternoon caused damage estimated today at between $380,000 and $400,000. No injuries were reported.

Crews worked around the clock last night attempting to clear wreckage and restore the tracks to use. Railroad officials said this morning low-speed traffic probably will be restored this afternoon.

Cause Not Determined

The 125-car train, bearing coal from Columbus to Sandusky, ripped up nearly 875 feet of track before grinding to a stop with 12 of the 18 derailed cars coming to rest across the tracks or partially toppled over an embankment.

Cause of the derailment had not been determined this morning. Darel DeVore, district track supervisor, said tracks are inspected daily either on foot or by track car. No damage to the tracks was reported prior to the derailment, he said.

Engineer C. B. Carman of Columbus estimated speed of the train at about 15 m.p.h. at the time of the mishap, according to Cpl. D. M. Dewalt of the local state highway patrol post.

Breaks at 52nd Car

It was not known which car left the tracks first, but the train was broken at the 52nd car. Derailment occurred at about 4 p.m. about midway between Waldo and Marion County Road 119 to the north.

Mr. DeVore said 12 of the cars were damaged beyond repair and would be salvaged for scrap. Four of the cars were restored for immediate use, he added.

Trains that normally travel the route are being held in Columous until clearing and repair operations are completed. Officials estimated six trains—four yesterday and two this morning—had been delayed so far.

Included in the loss, other than cars and track, were approximately 840 tons of coal, a section of fence and a utility pole bordering the roadbed and belonging to the railroad.

Other members of the train crew were listed as W. T. Cox, fireman; C. I. Kaason, brakeman; C. O. Lindner, conductor, and R. Dunn, flagman. All crew members are from Columbus.

Ike Reported Shaking Effect Of Head Cold

Cruising Ship Turns For Bermuda, Site of Forthcoming Meeting

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—President Eisenhower described as feeling much better after three days of warm sunshine, steamed toward Bermuda today for talks with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Traveling aboard the Navy guided missile cruiser Canberra, Eisenhower is to arrive at Hamilton, Bermuda, late Wednesday. His session with Macmillan will commence Thursday and end Sunday.

The President sailed from Norfolk, Va., last Thursday evening on a meandering six-day voyage to Bermuda in a move to shake a persistent cough, a head cold and an ear inflammation.

From Saturday morning until Monday night the Canberra cruised leisurely in the quiet, sunlit waters of Exuma Bay in the Bahama Islands area. Then the warship moved around the southern tip of Cat Island and headed for Bermuda, 850 miles northeast.

Just before the Canberra moved out of Exuma Bay Monday night the President told the crew he was having "a most enjoyable trip."

Was Fleeing After Robbery

Slayer of Officer Killed by Minister

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind. (AP)—A fleeing bank robber killed a veteran state police officer at a roadblock Monday and then died in a gun duel with the officer's friend, a Methodist minister.

Sgt. Marvin E. Walts, 49, a veteran of 19 years' state police service, was killed by a bullet that entered his forehead while William Hassett, 25, of Louisville, was dropped by two shotgun charges fired by the minister through the rear window of the trooper's car.

Minister's Report

Rev. Robert Gingery, 37, minister of Trinity Methodist Church in nearby New Albany, gave this account of the incident although he was in a state of near shock.

He and Walts were returning from looking at fishing sites in the area of Sellersburg, a community north of Jeffersonville, when state police radio broadcasted that the Sellersburg State Bank had been robbed of $1,655 by a gunman. Although it was his day off, Walts was directed to a roadblock four miles north of here and Gingery accompanied him.

Hassett, stopped by Walts, got out of his 1947 car and said: "I hope this thing won't take too long."

The trooper searched Hassett and found nothing significant but when he looked in the car, he spotted a brown leather jacket, a key item in the description of the bank robber.

"I've got a subject here that answers the description," Walts radioed his post. "Give me that description again."

Returns to Car

Gingery said that Walts then returned to the bandit's car with the suspect.

"I could see Walts bending down as if looking under the front seat," said Gingery. "Then I saw the man jerking around in the seat as if he was after something. I could see them scuffling and I heard some shots. I didn't see Walts after the shooting but the other man got out of the car and ran around the other side.

"Then I saw him crossing the road toward me with a gun . . ."

Pledges to City Drive for Pool Reach $10,000

Total Doesn't Include Weekend Returns of Cards Sent to Citizens

Pledges totaling $10,000 have been received and processed so far in the public subscription by pledge campaign to raise funds to construct a $173,000 swimming pool for Marion.

This total was reported when the board of trustees of the Marion Community Swimming Pool, Inc., met Monday night at the YMCA.

The total, the first to be reported since letters and pledge cards were mailed out to approximately 17,000 homes in Marion County last Tuesday, does not include cards received over the weekend and on Monday.

George Howser and T. L. Huffert, who are serving as co-chairmen of the drive, are encouraged with the subscriptions submitted so far. The deadline for mailing pledge cards is April 1.

Pledge cards are available at five business establishments in Marion for persons who possibly did not receive one through the mail. They can be obtained at the Henney and Cooper drug store, Meister Bros. drug store at the corner of Prospect and Superior streets, the L-K resturant on W. Center St., Chrispin's drug store on E. Center St. and the Humpty Dumpty Drive-In restaurant on N. Main St.

The board of trustees has announced the Marion Toastmaster's Club has offered its assistance in promoting the drive and will speak to any club or organization which would like more information regarding the proposed swimming pool for the city before making a pledge. Loren Schoppe is president of the Toastmaster's Club.

Mount Gilead Woman Killed

Margaret A. McAnall Struck by Automobile

MOUNT GILEAD — Miss Margaret Agnes McAnall, 84, of Mount Gilead became the first traffic fatality of this year in the city when she died in Morrow County Hospital Monday afternoon. She was struck at 11:40 a.m. by a car in front of the Sohio Station on N. Main St. The driver, Paul March, 29, of Mount Gilead, was not held.

This was the second traffic death in the county. A Medina man lost his life on Route 42 near Mount Gilead Sunday.

Born Sept. 5, 1872, in Morrow County, Miss McAnall was a daughter of John and Minerva Logan McAnall. She was a mmeber of First Presbyterian Church and of DAR. At one time she was a dressmaker.

Surviving are her sister, Mrs. Cora Blayney of Columbus and two nieces and two nephews whom she reared, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of Galion, Mrs. Blanche Nunemaker of Athens, Oscar McAnall of Indianapolis, Ind. and John McAnall of Galion.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Craven Funeral Home. Rev. Arthur Geyh will officiate. Burial will be in Iberia. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Tests Slated This Week

Siren Will Warn Public Of the Escape of Inmate

A new alarm system at the Marion Correctional Institution has been installed to warn area residents of the escape of inmates, Lamoyne Green, superintendent, announced today.

A siren located on top of the power house on the institution grounds will sound intermittent blasts during a two minute period at the time of each escape.

IF THE ESCAPEE is apprehended within a reasonable time after the initial series of blasts has sounded, one long all-clear blast will signify the fact, Mr. Green said

A "dry run" to acquaint persons with the sound of the blast will be conducted this week, Wednesday through Friday, the superintendent indicated.

The first part, or two-minute intermittent warning signal, will be sounded these three days at 12:15 p.m., followed by a long blast or all-clear signal approximately five minutes later

DESIGNED TO facilitate capture of escapees and also to warn the public that a prisoner is on the loose, the signal system has been installed as a safety measure, Mr. Green said.

He explained that the new alarm should give residents living in the area of the institution ample opportunity to secure their property such as an automobile which might be in jeopardy.

He also indicated that persons hearing the alarm should be on the lookout for any suspicious individuals and should report by telephoning the highway patrol, sheriff's office or the institution.

Firm Copies Local Ditch Plat Records

A Pittsburgh, Pa., photostating firm today began the job of making photostatic copies of all ditch plat books in the Marion County engineer's office. The job will require about two days and will be done for approximately $125.

The ditch records go back to dates prior to 1900, according to Reed Ours, county engineer, and are the only copies presently being kept. Mr. Ours says the work is being done primarily as a safety precautions, since fire could destroy all present records of the county's ditches.

The photostatic copies will be kept in a bank vault. A total of 15 volumes of plats will be copied, Mr. Ours said.

Magsaysay's Body Returned

Crowds of Mourners Follow Bier in Manila

MANILA (AP)—The charred body of Ramon Magsaysay, third president of the Philippine Republic, returned to this grieving capital today.

The flag-draped coffin of the popular 49-year-old chief executive, who crashed to his death with 25 others on a Cebu Island mountainside early Sunday, was flown here in the presidential plane Pagasa.

Weeping crowds followed the bier as it was driven slowly through the sun-baked streets to Malacanan Palace. It will lie in state there for three days until the funeral Friday.

Future Homemakers Hold Installation Ceremony

New Officers Are Cited During Meeting at Waldo School

Installation of county officers for the new year was held and a special program was presented by members of various chapters when a county FHA rally was held Monday night at the Waldo School.

About 125 persons were present including members of the six Future Homemakers of America chapters in the county, chapter advisers and guests. The chapters are at Waldo, Prospect, Claridon, Pleasant, LaRue and Meeker schools.

THEME FOR the rally was "Thinking of Spring."

The meeting was opened with the repeating of the creed by the group and the retiring president, Jo Ann Biggerstaff of Pleasant chapter, presided.

Officers installed included Kay Cates of Meeker chapter, president; Janis Fox of LaRue, vice president; Jane Fogle of Waldo, secretary and treasurer; Carrol Issler of Prospect, corresponding secretary; Marilyn Zieg of Pleasant, historian, and Marie McClenathan of Claridon, reporter and parliamentarian.

Guest speaker for the program was Mrs. Rachel Inselberg of Marion who showed pictures on "Family Life In the Philippines."

ALSO FOR THE program, the LaRue chapter presented the junior homemaking degrees. Claridon chapter was in charge of the music which included a piano solo by Sondra Patterson and selections by a vocal trio composed of Margo Thompson, Diana Smith and Nancy Jo Ruth. Two Prospect chapter members, Janet Moser and Patty Welsh, explained National FHA Week. Prospect chapter was in charge of the recreation and Waldo chapter served refreshments.

The fall rally will be held at Claridon school in November.

Credit Unions Called Competition for Banks

CHICAGO (AP)—Commercial loan firms face increasingly significant competition from credit unions, a management consultant said today.

Dr. Rudolf Modley of Kent, Conn., told an American Bankers Assn. installment credit conference that "the larger part of the one and one-quarter billion dollars in personal loans outstanding held by credit unions is undoubtedly volume which is directly competitive with commercial lending."

Modley, in a prepared address, said that "since the end of the second World War, installment credit outstanding by credit unions has grown 20-fold while personal loans by commercial banks have grown only 7-fold."

Bucyrus Area Men Build Fire Engine

BUCYRUS — A war surplus truck chassis and cab has been rebuilt into a pumper for the Tri-Township Volunteer Fire Department through the efforts of three volunteer firemen, Sam Heid, William Poper and Earl Ross, all of near Bucyrus.

The truck was purchased at a public auction at the Wilkins Air Force Depot at Shelby and the remodeling job represents two months' work. The work was done in space provided by the McCormick Farm Equipment Store here and several local manufacturers assisted in the task.

Equipped with 300 feet of high pressure hose and a high pressure pump, the outfit holds 520 gallons water and will pump 60 gallons a minute.

The pumper will be stationed in the village fire house at North Robinson east of here. It will serve Whetstone, Bucyrus, Dallas and Holmes Townships.

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks

without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

AND, OF ALL LAXATIVES, only COLONAID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONAID'S great moisturizing capacity plus COLONAID'S stretch-stimulating bulk that activates normal colonic reflexes. So effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONAID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98c for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Everybody Reads The Star

Book Written By Ex-Marion Man Published

A former Marion resident, Albion Ross, is the author of a book soon to be published by the Bobbs-Merrill Co.

Titled "Journey of An American," the book opens with the setting in Marion where the author made his home with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Albion Ross, on E. Center St. His father at that time was rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The author is now a recently retired foreign correspondent for the New York Times.

In his book, Mr. Ross writes what professionally he could not write for a newspaper. He goes beyond reporting in describing his reactions to history as it is happening, why it is happening and the people it affects. He meets the peoples of Europe, Africa, the Middle East and the Far East with an instinctive understanding and a strong sense of identification with them and with their lands, the publishers report.

The author has underscored his book with wry humor and wit in sifting what he has seen and heard to arrive at some unsettling truths about our civilization, according to the publishers.

The book will be published March 29.

Group Would Cut Education Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—A committee of the American Council on Education says there is no immediate need for a 7½ million dollar education planning program recommended by President Eisenhower.

Eisenhower's budget message contained a proposal for appropriation of 2½ million dollars for each of the next three fiscal years to stimulate state planning and programs in the field of education beyond the high school.

The committee said Monday that a report by the U. S. Office of Education, which said only a few states have made provision for such planning, is "not adequately supported by the facts."

The committee approved this resolution:

"That we encourage the several states to go all out in planning for education beyond the high school but that we do not see the need for the use of federal funds for this purpose."

Agencies Get Together

NEW YORK (AP)—Hungarian relief agencies in the United States have agreed to work together under a single organization. Dr. Tibor de Cholnoky said the new organization will be known as Coordinated Hungarian Relief, Inc.

Jesus Loved Them

By Patrick and Garrison

JAMES Son of Alphaeus

"And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him . . . Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus . . ."

—Mark III:14,18

No name in the New Testament has caused quite so much confusion as that of James.

The reason is that in different places we read variously of James the son of Alphaeus, James the brother of the Lord; and of James the Less.

Are all these one and the same person? Catholic scholars for the most part say yes. Many Protestant authorities agree with them.

But then another question arises. What is meant by the designation, "brother of the Lord?"

Catholic interpreters assert that the Greek word, "adelphos," used in this reference, can mean step-brother or even a near relative.

Therefore, they argue, James was not the brother of Jesus in the literal sense—that is, he was not the son of Mary, the Virgin. It is more likely, they contend, that he was the son of the Virgin's sister, and therefore a cousin of Jesus.

In the early Church, the Greek fathers believed him to be the son of Joseph by a first marriage. Latin writers of the same period, however, all regarded James as the cousin of Jesus, since they taught that Mary remained a virgin all her life.

Whatever his exact relation to Jesus, James held a position of great respect among the Apostles.

It is said that after the martyrdom of St. Stephen, the other Apostles chose James to preside over affairs of the church in Jerusalem. Hence, he is sometimes referred to as the Bishop of Jerusalem.

According to the historian Hegesippus, who lived toward the end of the second century, James made a public declaration of his faith from one of the Temple ramparts, and was hurled to the ground by angry scribes and Pharisees. He was not killed by the fall, so his attackers then stoned him. As he was being killed, so the account goes, he called upon God to forgive his murderers.

Dental Plate of Murder Victim Traced to Maker

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A dental plate belonging to a woman whose strangled body was found in Big Darby Creek here Saturday has been traced to its maker.

Richard Reed, a Columbus dental technician, identified the plate as one he made within the past 18 months. He told police however, chances are "pretty slim" the woman's identity can be learned through the plate.

Four youths found the body wrapped in a blanket and bedspread and stuffed into a muslin sack. Dr. Carl E. Tetirick, acting Franklin County coroner, ruled someone murdered the woman by choking her with a piece of rope.

Old Plea Set Aside

CINCINNATI (AP)—A San Diego man has asked criminal court to set aside a guilty plea he made five years ago in an $82 shoe store robbery.

Richard Taylor, 37, asserted he had pleaded guilty of armed robbery but was not armed. Taylor was returned here Feb. 4 through extradition proceedings after being released from Utah Penitentiary.

H. J. Grigsby, chairman of the national affairs subcommittee, briefly discussed national affairs and urged members of the council to watch affairs in Washington closely and report various ideas to local senators and congressmen.

DANCERS HAVE A KICK COMING. Recalling that "Oscars" have been awarded for every movie achievement except dancing, four Radio City Music Hall Rockettes decide they have a kick coming as they get together with director Russell Markert in New York. He is signing a petition to be sent to the Hollywood Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences urging inclusion of choreography in annual prize awards.

Farmers To Plant Less Corn in Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio farmers are expected to plant approximately 3,493,000 acres of corn this year, or about 96 per cent of last year's acreage, the Department of Agriculture estimates.

Estimates released Monday are based on planting plans of farmers as reported March 1.

Oat estimates show a slight increase over last year with 1,191,000 acres estimated, or two per cent above 1956.

Other acreage estimates and the percentage of the 1956 acreage are:

Soybeans—1,419,000 or 106 per cent.

Tobacco—12,900 or 98 per cent.

Sugar Beets—21,000 or 114 per cent.

Try To Settle Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—With no progress to report from Monday's session, federal mediators are meeting with labor and management representatives again today to try to settle the Linde Air Products Co. plant strike in Kittanning, Pa.

Negotiations are being carried on separately for each of the five Linde operations struck by the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers. One plant of the five is at Youngstown, Ohio. Liquid oxygen produced by the plants is used in the steel industry.

Findlay Firm Submits Low Bid on State Tires

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The company that submitted a recently rejected bid on tires for use by the Ohio Department of Highways has submitted another bid.

The Cooper Tire and Rubber Co. of Findlay Monday submitted the apparent low bid on several categories of tires.

The Highway Department rejected earlier bids by Cooper on ground the contract specifications were "less than proper."

A Democratic "watch dog" committee in the Republican-controlled Legislature asked for an explanation and highway department spokesmen said more definite and precise specifications were needed.

Body Found on Farm

Sketch of Lincoln At Gettysburg Is Given to President

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sketch made of Abraham Lincoln as he gave his famous Gettysburg Address goes to the White House today as a present to the President and Mrs. Eisenhower. The artist was an Ohioan.

The owner of the sketch, Joseph G. Heald of Pequot Lakes, Minn., is a grandson of the artist, the late Col. Freeman Thorpe.

Thorpe also was commissioned to paint Lincoln's portrait at a later date. This painting was acquired by purchase in 1920 and now hangs in the main corridor in the Senate wing of the Capitol.

Thorpe, a native of Geneva, Ohio, served as a volunteer in the 2nd Ohio Cavalry in the Civil War. Heald said his grandfather arranged to go to Gettysburg when he learned Lincoln was to visit the battlefield and sketched him at the time.

The library of Congress said a studio was built for Thorpe's use on the roof of the Capitol when the artist was only 27. President Grant sat for his portrait there.

Thorpe painted portraits of many eminent people including five U. S. Presidents — Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, McKinley and Cleveland.

REA Approve Loan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Rural Electrification Administration announced approval Monday of an $880,000 loan to the Buckeye Rural Electrification Cooperative at Gallipolis, Ohio.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio), was advised the money would be used to extend new power service to 375 customers and for systemwide improvements.

Mr. Purkey died Sunday morning at Wyandot Memorial Hospital. Death was attributed to complications.

Born Dec. 28, 1876, in Salem Township, Wyandot County, he was the son of Franklin and Sara Sprau Purkey. Only survivors are a sister, Mrs. William Kreisel of Upper Sandusky, and a nephew, Robert Kreisel also of Upper Sandusky.

Mrs. Harley Corwin

MOUNT VICTORY—Mrs. Laura S. Corwin, 77, wife of Harley Corwin of Mount Victory, died at 10:45 a.m. Monday at home. She was ill three months.

Born Sept. 2, 1879, in Hardin County, she was a daughter of John and Mary Gardner Deerwester. Her marriage was in December, 1897 and until moving to Mount Victory in 1949, her home was on the farm north of Ridgeway. She was a member of the Mount Victory Church of Christ.

Surviving are her husband; two sons, Ervin and Elton Corwin, both of Marion; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Schaner of Kenton and Mrs. Elizabeth Lyons of Bucyrus. Two brothers and three sisters preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Mackey Funeral Home in Mount Victory. Rev. A. E. Oliver will officiate. Burial will be in Wolf Creek Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Adam H. Stutz

UPPER SANDUSKY — Funeral services for Adam H. Stutz, 81, a native of Upper Sandusky, were to be held this afternoon at the Lutz Funeral Home in Sandusky. Burial was to be made in Oakland Cemetery at Sandusky.

Mr. Stutz died Friday at Norwalk City Hospital.

He was a printer by trade and had formerly been in business in Upper Sandusky. He served as village treasurer here at one time.

Surviving are four children: Harold Stutz of Vermillion, Mrs. Eleanor Payton of Akron, Mrs. Alice Sanger of Norwalk, with whom he had been residing, and Charles Stutz of Ashland, and six grandchildren. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Edward Day and Mrs. Carl Adams of Upper Sandusky.

Mrs. Samuel Ulrich

SYCAMORE — Mrs. Eva Estella Ulrich, 81, of Eden Township near Nevada died at Wyandot Memorial Hospital at 12:25 this morning. She had been a patient in the hospital four days. She had been in failing health 10 years and in serious condition two weeks with a heart ailment.

She was the daughter of Adam and Laura Evans Traxler and was born in Eden Township on Jan. 17, 1876. She was a lifetime member of the community where she resided. She married Samuel S. Ulrich on Nov. 8, 1896. He survives. The couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last November.

Surviving with Mr. Ulrich are one son, Forrest T. Ulrich at home; three daughters, Mrs. Myron (Wanda) Schoenberger and Mrs. Louis H. (Ruth) Kleinlein of Upper Sandusky and Mrs. Walter (Vivian) Logan of near Tiffin; nine grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. One brother and one sister preceded her in death.

Mrs. Ulrich was a member of the Eden Chapel Methodist Church at Little York south of Sycamore and the Women's Society of the church. She was a former school teacher in the Eden Township area.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at Moore's Funeral Home. Rev. R. P. Lowman will officiate. Burial will be in Nevada Cemetery. Friends may call after 3 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Ashley Area Man, 78, Found Dead Near Road

ASHLEY—William Adrian Bartlett, 78, of south of Ashley was found dead at the side of the Steam Town Rd. near here about 7:30 this morning.

Sheriff Harley Wornstaff said the man had apparently suffered a heart attack while on his way to visit a friend, William Racy, about three-fourths of a mile from Mr. Bartlett's home.

The sheriff said it appeared Mr. Bartlett felt the attack coming on and got off the roadway.

Born in Wyandot County, Mr. Bartlett had spent most of his life in the Ashley community. He was a produce raiser.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Stella Bartlett, and nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Bennett-Brown Funeral Home in Ashley. Burial will be in Ashley Union Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 p. m. Wednesday.

Mr. Bartlett had left his home about 6:30 this morning. He was found by Henry Boring, a tenant on the Bruce Burger farm. The Steam Town Rd. is one mile south of Ashley off Route 42.

The number of persons voluntarily entering California state mental hospitals has increased 162 per cent since 1946, the state department of mental hygiene reports. However, voluntary admissions still account for only 15 per cent of the total patients.

Magsaysay Won Respect

Ramon Magsaysay, whose death has left political leadership in the Philippines in an uproar, was one of a new generation of Asiatic leaders.

He was listened to with respect by the East as well as the West because he had earned respect in both hemispheres; he was no foreign government's puppet.

As the leader of a government which only last summer celebrated the 10th anniversary of its independence, President Magsaysay was a vigorous anti-imperialist, which chiefly meant he was mistrustful of the Soviet Union. Before Russia was the imperialist threat, he was mistrustful of Japan. And before that, when the United States was tardily keeping its promise to give the Philippines their independence, he was mistrustful of this country.

He still was mistrustful last summer, when he completed an agreement that the Philippines should have complete sovereignty over U.S. military bases in the territory under his government's jurisdiction.

His vice president, Carlos Garcia, is believed to share the dead president's views about Russian imperialism. As the new head of the government, Garcia may become another Ramon Magsaysay in his own right. Without a strong leader, the Philippines cannot maintain a secure position under the guns of the Russian expansionists hoping to capture Asia piecemeal.

In Restraint of Decency

It takes two to make a deal. The West Coast Teamsters are not suspected of having operated alone.

When the Senate rackets investigation rounds out the picture it is painting for Congress, all unionists will see what farsighted unionists have been watching a long time.

It is not so much the possibility of misusing unionism, they are fearful of as combinations between bad unionism and bad business in restraint of decency.

That is barred by the AFL-CIO code of ethics. It is the arrangement many observers accuse the West Coast Teamsters of bringing to perfection. It is the arrangement that brings shivers to East Coast students of the methods of James R. Hoffa.

The Teamsters Union, like all large unions, can be expected to have all the patterns and practices of the day in its midst. The purpose of the Senate investigation is to learn about an arrangement whereby union leaders could work with businessmen and politicians in patterns of corruption.

The "division of power" that makes it impossible for one segment of the economy to ride roughshod over other segments could be shattered if the law failed to forbid combinations in restraint of decency as firmly as combinations in restraint of trade.

Extra Care Needed

Grass fires seem to be unusually prevalent and widespread this year, and Chief Owen A. Sifritt's warning in today's paper to guard against them is well taken.

Twenty-three such fires were reported in March, and some of them were quite extensive. Grass and brush fires can be extremely damaging in themselves, and in certain areas can turn into full-fledged forest fires that could destroy everything in their path.

It always pays to be careful with bonfires, matches, cigarets and cigars when in a forest or heavily grassed field. This spring the terrain apparently is quite dry, and with strong winds fanning the flames a large area can burn off quite rapidly.

Consequently, Marion County residents should take extra care to reduce this danger from spring grass fires.

Just Big Enough

The chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., Roger M. Blough, has declared war on pygmy-makers in government.

He told the Economic Club of Chicago that the biggest corporations in the United States are too small to do the things expected of them and therefore must band together in combines.

These combinations in encouragement of trade—not restraint of trade—are the coming thing, Mr. Blough hinted. There is no other answer to the problems of harnessing the sun's rays, unharnessing the atom's energy and flying into outer space. It will be noted that two and potentially three of these are government projects.

When the Atomic Energy Commission wanted more electric power for its Ohio gaseous diffusion plant than any single power company could furnish, a group of companies formed a combination to do the job. When the steel industry wanted to locate new iron-ore sources and develop techniques for getting ore from taconite, the job was done by combinations.

"The future is not for little men with little minds," Mr. Blough says. "It is not for arch-reactionaries who seek to shatter big enterprise and force American industry back into the puny production patterns of its 19th century infancy."

Abraham Lincoln said when asked how long a man's legs should be, "They should be just long enough to reach the ground." U.S. enterprise, too, must be just big enough to do what is expected of it.

Aswan Move Clarified

By David Lawrence

Dulles Reveals Real Reason for Withdrawal

Crisis after Crisis is coming in the Middle East — and the main reason is the deliberate effort of the Soviet government to use Nasser and any other rulers in the Arab world to keep aflame the fires of hostility to the West.

Lawrence

The U.N. Assembly may prove powerless to bring peace in the area. It may turn out that joint action by the United States and its allies will alone bring the Nasser government to terms.

For it is apparent that the Gaza Strip isn't going to be neutralized if Moscow can prevent it and if Nasser can bluff his way to a permanent occupation by his own forces.

It is suspected also that when the government of Saudi Arabia announced that Israel's ships will not be allowed to use the Gulf of Aqaba, the Communists — notwithstanding the king's friendliness to the United States — may have managed to penetrate the Saudi Arabia government itself.

In all this the Department of State is trying still to play the role of mediator but is hard pressed by the pleas of Israel that the "assumptions" upon which her withdrawal of troops were based shall not be disregarded nor Nasser again given a free hand.

THE SYMPATHY of Congress as well as the executive branch of the government is on the side of Israel in the latest phase of the dispute because it is felt a "moral commitment" was made to Ben Gurion to persuade him to withdraw his troops on the assurance there would be security for Israel against Egyptian raids

But the big question — what action America can or might take—is still unresolved. In matters of this kind it is logical to apply diplomatic influence first and later perhaps economic pressure in order to get Nasser to change his mind.

Meanwhile, an interesting revelation has been made by Secretary Dulles with reference to a point that has often been discussed in press reports but never clarified, namely the relationship between the breakoff by the United States of negotiations for the financing of the Aswan Dam and the subsequent seizure of the Suez Canal by Nasser.

Unfriendly critics here and abroad have charged that it was all Mr. Dulles's fault and that had he not broken off the negotiations maybe the canal would not have been seized.

IN A PRESS CONFERENCE at Canberra, last Wednesday, the text of which was not generally printed in this country, the following questions and answers, recorded stenographically then, are of renewed significance now.

"Q. — Has the United States of America ever regretted its decision to cancel the loan to Egypt for the Aswan Dam?

"A. — (Mr. Dulles): No, I think if anything events have confirmed that fact that it would not have been a wise operation for us to have tried to conduct together.

"That was a gigantic proposition which involved expenditures of probably a billion and a half dollars, by far the largest operation of the kind ever known in the history of the world. It would have taken about 15 years of close association.

"It would have involved an austerity program on the part of Egypt which I think the people would have come to resent and would have blamed the foreigners who were partners to the enterprise.

"The more we studied it the more we came to the conclusion that it was not a suitable project for the United States and the United Kingdom — because they were in it also — to try to conduct with Egypt.

"Q. — Do you think it hastened the seizure of the Canal company by Egypt?

"A. — Well, it is hard to say whether that hastened it or not. We know now from statements made by President Nasser and also made by President Tito that there had been plans to seize the universal canal company made approximately two years before.

"THE PLANS were all ready and this may have provided the occasion but if there had not been this occasion, I am quite sure another one would have been found.

"Q. — Was it the hope of your government when the United Nations first moved into the Gaza Strip that they would remain for some considerable time?

"A.—We believe that it would be desirable to have the United Nations emergency force function as a barrier between Israel and the neighboring Arab countries.

"That has been difficult to work out, partly because Israel has not wanted to have any elements of the United Nations force on the Israeli side of the boundary and Egypt has not wanted to have them exclusively on the Egyptian or Gaza Strip on the boundary.

"But I still hope something can be worked out there to give greater stability and tranquility to the area and to put a stop to the raiding back and forth."

This continues to be the objective but Nasser, stimulated by Soviet advisers, is still bluffing his way even as Hitler and Mussolini did in the 1930's.

The real question is whether the free governments of the world have learned that it doesn't pay to appease dictators.

Spring Miracle

By TRUMAN TWILL

This was the morning of the spring miracle in the sheepfold.

The first lamb was lying in a beam of dusty barn sunlight when the morning check was made. Its mother was standing guard, nickering with the solicitation of all mothers in this miraculous experience

Actually, the lamb had been born long enough to be sitting with its four feet tucked under it — the position of repose for sheep. When they lie on their side, something is wrong.

The lamb was dry, warm and spotlessly white. Its belly was full, and it was contented with the kind of world it had been born into. Its mother, normally timid, as all sheep are, stood by while her baby was examined for defects and to determine its sex. She was contented, too.

Another ewe whose time for lambing was near kept nosing in toward the newcomer, wanting to fuss over it in anticipation of the arrival of her own baby. This is common among sheep, who frequently fuss over one another's lambs at birth like a roomful of neighbor women.

But immediately afterward, there is a definitive showdown on parenthood. This is the only time of tension and unpleasantness in the sheepfold miracle — while the new mothers are learning to identify their offspring by scent.

Confusion at this time will result in tragedy — or a bottle-fed lamb. Once a lamb has been rejected, only subterfuge can make its mother change her mind, and subterfuge is no match for instinct.

Acceptance, however, is permanent. The mother will have nothing to do thereafter with any other lamb and will drive it away by force until it finds its own mother. Because the entire thing is based on scent, the lamb is up against a tough proposition when it gets lost — so it learns not to get lost.

Everything is shipshape within an hour. The new lamb has learned that it can walk forward and backward. It knows its mother and where her most important facility is situated.

Within a few days it has learned that other lambs, too, can walk forward and backward, can bunt and be bunted — and the fun is on!

But the first love is always for the nickering ewe whose welcoming licks and nuzzles celebrated the miracle. A mother will lead her baby into the meadow to sleep in the sun and return every few minutes to make sure it is safe. If it strays, she will search and call until it has been located.

If it dies, she will mourn for days, returning always to the place where she left it to cry for it. She will nurse it if it is sick or weak. She will square off to fight for it if she believes it is in danger.

Dogs will do this, too, but dogs are supposed to be intelligent. Sheep are not. But they more than make up for lack of intelligence by instincts as remarkable as any in the animal kingdom — instincts so good they make the instincts of human beings seem ragged and spotty by comparison.

The refresher course in the sheepfold miracle that starts every year about this time at our house never loses interest. Since the miracle usually is continuous from the time the first lamb appears until the flock has had its annual increase, there will be a wide-eyed spectator in the sheepfold most of the time for the next few nights

Hobnails Give Way to Sneakers

Frankfurterian Logic

By Raymond Moley

The Supreme Court, in a 6-3 decision, has reinstated an indictment of the United Auto Workers for violation of the Corrupt Practices Act in using the general funds of the union, collected in dues from the members, for certain telecasts in support of candidates in the 1954 campaign.

These, it should be noted, were addressed to the general public.

The issue would be quite different, according to Justice Frankfurter's decision, if the appeal for a candidate were made in a union newspaper, since such an appeal would go to union members only.

This is a true Frankfurterian distinction without a difference. The real point, in morals or in law, is whether money which a union member contributes for the purpose of supporting a bargaining agency can be used for candidates whom union heads have decided to support.

SUPPOSE, FOR EXAMPLE, you are an automobile worker who favors the election of John Jones, a Republican candidate for Congress, and suppose the boss of the union takes your money to support, even in a labor publication, Henry Smith, a Democrat running against Jones.

You would have a right to go to the courts of the land under the law and it seems to me, under the Constitution and claim protection from the improper use of your property.

Indeed this is the point which was made when the original law was passed by Congress in 1907 prohibiting political contributions by corporations. That law recognized that the officers or directors of a corporation would violate stockholders' rights in using company money in politics.

The Corrupt Practices Act, revised by the Taft-Hartley legislation, merely placed labor unions along with corporations under the same prohibition.

THE ISSUE INVOLVED is very important, since the unions claim that they can, by the subterfuge of calling their political appeals by the name "education," use their general funds.

In the hearings before the Gore subcommittee on privileges and elections of the U.S. Senate last year representatives of the unions claimed that the following activities were educational, not political, as quoted in the Gore report: "The representatives of labor cited the following examples of activity in which they and under their constitutional right, are permitted to engage with the use of general union funds: (1) Systematically organized drives for registration of voters; (2) carry out a systematic program of political education, including organization of schools where political questions are discussed, and the compilation and distribution of voting records; and (3) exercise the right of free speech by expressing their views on political questions in print and by means of radio and television and otherwise."

THIS COVERS nearly the whole waterfront of politics, since not only the general funds of the unions but the time and energy of union officers and shop stewards are used in registering not all voters but voters sympathetic with the politics of the union leaders.

It should be noted also that under (2) above, the printing and distribution of voting records of members of Congress in the last campaign involved 15 million pieces of "literature."

The issue that the Supreme Court cannot dodge forever is whether if unions may carry on these political activities under the name "education" and with general funds, the same permission is not granted to corporations.

The issue involved is the same in both cases — i.e., whether an individual's money can be used without his consent for a political purpose to which he is opposed.

Such permission should be denied to both corporations and unions, not only because of the moral issue involved but because the alternative would result in utter chaos.

When the Selfish Die

By Frank Tripp

A happy but puzzled average man asked, what are people of vast wealth far beyond their lifetime needs thinking, not to watch it accomplish good while they still live? A good question.

Must be they've paid no attention to what will happen to it when they die. The only other answer would be that they really love money, love to count it and caress it; maybe even hoard coins to jingle them as did greedy misers of song and literature.

In this little reverie 'tis not the intent to chide them—just to feel very, very sorry for them. You have heard them lamenting their plight; so distracted because humanity, education, recreation, health—even soldiers to defend their precious wealth — are so expensive and threaten to deplete their pile.

Not all of them, of course, for out of fortunes have come the common man's greatest blessings; from the Rockefellers and the Carnegies down to some little playground that used to be a successful neighborhood grocer's garden. Such men knew how to make their wealth do good to mankind and perpetuate their names unto generations when they would have been forgotten.

ONE THING is certain—that enough money is more blessed than a lot. Another—that the little man with his little money gets the most joy out of what he has

Could it be because money of itself means little to him? To him it is worthless, save what it will do for him and his. He never expects to count his riches in dollars. He counts them in family, home, happiness and health; in the joy he can bring his friends, the help he can give his neighbor.

His is the laughter we hear on the street. His are the children who romp in the parks. His is the wife who sits by the sick. His is the heart that knows how to sing, to respond—to live. Because, though his dollars are few, they work for him before his very eyes and make him happy.

He is wiser by far, and more blessed, than one who counts vast wealth in money which has yet to stir a smile, heal a wound or cheer a heart; molding wealth, fodder for the tax collector.

IF ONE WOULD rail at inheritance taxes and all that is confiscatory about them, he should save some wrath for what brought them about. It once was that cumulative wealth could be cached ad infinitum, almost as truly as if it were buried in the ground.

The philosophy which defeated that system, whether you agree or not, is that excess wealth of a generation belongs to that generation, or, by progressive declension, to the next two. Sort of a concession to the old saw, "from shirtsleeves to shirtsleeves in three generations."

The aim, of course, was to prevent one family from some day owning a whole state—perhaps the nation. Government has forestalled that but has done a miserable job of spending the wealth it thus confiscated It has taken more for itself, its faithful, for foreign favor, gimmicks and its own extravagance than it has expended wisely for the people.

EVEN SEEING this, some wealth still tugs at its own bootstraps, clings to dollars it cannot pass on to its own sons. Men hoard dollars for the tax collector while the need for and the joy of giving knock at their door.

So much to do for community, church, education, hospitals, the unfortunate — with dollars that would cost the donor only a few cents! Dollars the government will take when he dies.

Who, that lives among the people, wouldn't rejoice to be in such a man's shoes and give to his town, neighbors and friends something they need very badly?

Before the tax collector takes it all and a few duty mourners, very few, walk slowly behind the most desolate of dead—to be seen there, but not to shed a tear.

When the selfish die, they are dead indeed.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

All Done by Buttons

Radio Corporation of America has built an electric brain called "Bizmac," now being used by the Army to give a million facts formerly requiring the work of hundreds of clerks. It totals up and keeps track of all the nuts and bolts in the army possession.

This is but one more in the "arsenal" of brain machines recently turned out for government and industry. This sort of thing can do away with the human head, except for purposes of photography and shaving.

WE MAY ULTIMATELY see machines elected heads of corporations and hear of a board chairman dropped because he had no gears, wheels or cranks. It is even possible some big concern will send its elected officials fishing and call a special meeting of its mechanical devices to handle big problems fast.

POSSIBLE SCENE between a stenographer and a corporation chief:

"Miss Bilkins, throw the switch on machine 189-B and see what I should say in answering today's letters. Is there much mail?"

"I will consult our new mailogram apparatus and find out."

"The phone is ringing and I am glad to see you are not answering it. I thought I would never break you of the habit."

"It was hard realizing that all phone calls come from our talkatomic contraption and must be answered by our new jiffygraph."

"WHAT'S MY SCHEDULE today, Miss Bilkins? I would press a button and find out, except that my index finger is sore."

"I will have the complete agenda in ten seconds, barring a short circuit."

"Yesterday you sent me to an important conference not scheduled until next June. How come?"

"Fuse trouble. The conference slid into the wrong circuit and sidetracked yesterday's meeting."

"What happened to yesterday's meeting?"

"It turned up in the mechanical file for one held last October."

"Better call in the repairman. I don't want to press a button for a complete statement of corporation assets and get my last year's golf scores by mistake, due to a broken wire."

"While I think of it, your wife called. She has found out you took me to dinner last week."

"How did she find out so soon?"

"She probably has a machine on which she can press a button and get the facts fast, too."

A BALTIMORE CHIMPANZEE paints pictures which have been sold for as high as $50 . . . Comparing them with the paintings of human beings in the school of surrealists, we would say this proves some paintings can be done as well inside a cage as out.

An Illinois super thruway is to have a central lane of rose bushes . . . But it is doubtful if autoists, accustomed as they are to ultimate luxury on new roads, will settle for anything less than orchids.

In New York a high school teacher was stabbed by a pupil who was caught and reprimanded for guzzling whisky out of a half-pint bottle in the schoolroom . . . Isn't a teacher open to charges that he is interfering with a child's personality if he rebukes him for alcoholic excesses during studies? — Possibly a psychiatrist will rush in to blame it all on parents and recommend that schoolteachers function in suits of armor.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — Authorities felt that the latest turn in events of German action, the sinking of three American ships, would cause President Wilson to take speedy action in the direction of declaring war. Meanwhile, the President openly admitted that he was considering the calling of Congress in to an emergency session.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., suffered a $400,000 fire loss when a blaze broke out in the downtown district, destroying two business buildings and extensively damaging a department store.

With a sweeping 12 mile advance, allies made complete their capture of the Somme front in France. With Bapaume, Peronne and Combles in their hands, the entente powers had the three big objectives they had set out to take from the Germans.

The personal fortune of Czar Nicholas, former Russian ruler, who had abdicated his throne in the face of revolution, was estimated at $2,000,000,000. It was predicted that the new government would confiscate many of the buildings and use them for the purchase of war supplies.

20 YEARS AGO — Ten minutes before dismissal time at a London, Tex., high school, the building, without warning, was blown to pieces, leaving an estimated 425 dead and 275 injured. President Roosevelt immediately ordered a military inquiry into the cause of it. Accumulated gas from nearby oil fields was the cause attributed by the superintendent.

Forty Harding High School seniors were named to the National Honor Society's local chapter by K. H. Marshall, superintendent.

Karl S. Bolander of Columbus, former Marion man widely known in the field of fine arts, spoke before the Pearl St. PTA concerning "Art as it Affects the Happiness of a Child's Life"

10 YEARS AGO—St. Mary Parochial School dismissed classes at noon for the remainder of the week due to the flu epidemic which had spread throughout Marion and vicinity, forcing the closing of city public schools and three rural county schools.

Rev. W. E. Zimmerman, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, indicated that the Civilian Production Administration in Columbus had approved the construction of the basement unit in a one-story modernistic church which was to be constructed on the east side of S. Prospect St. north of W. Columbia St.

In spite of disagreement among the Big Four concerning the fate of Germany, Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov expressed the opinion that the four powers could reach an agreement "concerning the critical German economic program."

No Fatal Mishaps Listed for Month

For the first time in several months the Marion post of the state highway patrol recorded no fatalities during February in traffic accidents

Cpl D M Dewalt noted that of the 55 accidents investigated during the month, only 20 of these were injury mishaps with a total of 35 injuries sustained

Throughout District 2 comprising Baybridge Fremont Norwalk Bucyrus, Mansfield and the Marion posts, a total of 288 accidents was recorded during the month with a total of eight persons killed and 161 persons injured

In the enforcement division on the local scene the corporal said that 138 of the 151 arrests made were for traffic violations and 11 for registration and overload charges Two felonies were recorded

Other local post activities included 28 special details 7 safety talks $17,514 recovered in property, $14 collected in registration fees 21 PUCO inspections, and assistance rendered in 15 cases

Wiggle System of Forecasting Weather Loses Out to Science

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Science has won by default over the Wiseley wiggle system of weather forecasting

At least science, represented by U S Weather Forecaster Don Coleman, claims a victory

But Clayton H Wiseley, principal of Coy Elementary School and proponent of his own wiggle system, still believes school pupils squirm in their seats when the barometer begins to plunge

The test came last January when Wiseley announced he planned to match the accuracy of bad weather forecasts made with his wiggle system against those of the Weather Bureau

Weatherman Coleman took him up, and sent him a set of forecast verification forms on which to keep records

Wiseley admitted Sunday he never kept the records

"I just didn't have the time The forms asked for temperatures and I don't know what all" he explained

Wiseley said his wiggle system grew out of his observations of animals in his boyhood days on a farm near Findlay

"Livestock was more difficult to control when there was a change in the weather" he said "The chickens were more excitable"

But Coleman, apparently after some soul searching drew on some farm experiences of his own in rebuttal

He lives on a farm now and said he was inclined last winter toward the wiggle system after noticing his guinea hens forsook a tree for indoor sleeping in advance of several rains

"But then one night last winter they got caught," Coleman summarized smugly

Political Friends Aghast at Portrait Of Senator Clark

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An offbeat portrait of U S Sen Joseph S Clark, former mayor of Philadelphia, has set quite a few people by the ears

At what might be called a peek preview upon delivery Monday, Mayor Richardson Dilworth let fly with "Oh, my God"

"It's terrible," exploded another member of the city's Democratic administration

"Makes Joe look like Hamlet," another man put in

'Is that bad?" ventured one of the minority gently

Good, bad or a pain in the neck, it ain't Joe" said one critic hotly 'Do we want Joe or Sir Laurence Olivier? If I had the say so this picture would go on the rubbish pile"

"'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished," seconded a scholarly fellow

The artist, Franklin C Watkins a Philadelphian of international repute, shrugged off the flogging good humoredly He said

'I expected some shrieks My purpose was to portray a little more thoughtful type of person than a politician I painted Sen Clark as I thought he ought to be painted I didn't think he fitted into the usual pattern of a mayor and a politician"

The portrait was scheduled for hanging in city hall

"You made me what I am today!"

Yes, Marion, you did it!

Grew so fast I had to grow with you. Now look at me! Heftier, handsomer, healthier! 3 columns instead of 2. Packed full of clear, easy-to-read names and numbers ... more Yellow Pages and listings to keep business booming.

A covered dish supper at 6:30 o'clock will precede a business session and installation of officers when the Elks Women's Club meets Wednesday evening in the lodge lounge. Arrangements for the supper are in charge of Mrs. Helen Kennard social chairman and members of her committee.

When the Gabbettes Club met Wednesday evening the hostess was Mrs. Mary Obenour of Madison Ave. Favorite TV programs were given by the members in response to roll call.

A silent auction was held during the social hour and in a contest the award was won by Mrs. Thelma Boucher. The hostess was assisted in serving a dessert lunch by her daughter, Sherry Obenour. The April meeting will be with Mrs. Koneta Hopkins of Park St.

Mrs. Jennie Jerew of 471 E. Center St. celebrated her 95th birthday at a dinner party given in her honor by Mr. and Mrs. W. Irl Reasoner of 201 S. Vine St. Saturday evening.

The Reasoners entertained a small group of Mrs. Jerew's friends for the occasion. Her birthday fell on Sunday, St. Patrick's Day.

Remarkably active for her 95 years, Mrs. Jerew enjoys talking and visiting with friends, watching television and even having her hair done at the beauty parlor. Her mind is surprisingly alert, also.

She has spent most of her life in Marion as her husband, Charles W. Jerew, now deceased, was employed by the Marion Power Shovel Co. for 45 years. Mr. Reasoner is a nephew.

Mrs. Jeremiah Adams presided for a regular meeting of the Good Friends Club of LaRue at the home of Mrs. Earl Hennis Thursday afternoon. Assigned topics were given in response to roll call. "The Episode of Sparrows" by Rumer Godden was reviewed by Mrs. Fred Cooper, a guest. She was presented a gift by the club. Micky Sue Rizor was also a guest. The next meeting, which will conclude the club year, will be held at the home of Mrs. John Dilsaver.

Bucyrus Court Is Reversed by Rule Of Appeals Judges

BUCYRUS — The Third District Court of Appeals at Lima has reversed a verdict of a Crawford County Common Pleas Court Jury, which awarded $1,196 to David Ritzler of near Bloomville and the Western Reserve Mutual Casualty Co. of Wooster, for damages to the Ritzler car.

The case was remanded here for new trial. Basis for reversal of the verdict was that the defendant, Donald Eckleberry, 20, of near Nevada, was a minor and the action had not been brought against him as a minor.

In appealing the verdict, Eckleberry's attorney also cited that a guardian ad litum had not been appointed for the defendant prior to the trial.

During the brief trial, a motion for dismissal of the case on the grounds that Eckleberry was a minor was overruled by Judge John C. Carroll, who also later overruled a motion for a new trial. The unanimous verdict in favor of the plaintiffs was returned by the jury after only 45 minutes' deliberation.

Ritzler's car was damaged in an accident occurring near Bucyrus on Route 30-N on June 6, 1954 The plaintiffs charged that Eckleberry swerved his car into the path of the Ritzler car.

Children Bite Baby

CLEVELAND (AP)—Three-month-old Frank Garber was treated at St. Alexis' Hospital Monday night for bites from head to foot apparently inflicted by two children, aged 3 and 2.

The infant's mother, Mrs. Dolores Garber, 23, told police she had been baby sitting with a neighbor's children and left the children alone for about five minutes to make a telephone call. When she returned, she said, the older children were on the bed with the baby

Lodge Activities

Three charter members, Mrs. Emma Bondley, Mrs. Margaret Midlam and Mrs. Mary Miller were honored when Betsy Ross Auxiliary No. 14, Auxiliary to Marion Camp No. 32, United Spanish War Veterans, met Friday in the Grotto Hall. On behalf of the auxiliary the president, Mrs Gertrude Andrews, presented gifts to the honored members. During the business session Mrs. Nellie Cramer was installed as senior vice president Games and contests provided entertainment with honors going to Mrs. Minnie Nedds. Members of the camp joined the auxiliary for a dinner at the noon hour and later held a short business session.

Mrs Ann Miller was appointed to serve as chairman for the annual Memorial Day poppy sale at a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to GI Post No. 584, American Legion, Wednesday night in the clubrooms. Mrs. Peg Midlam presided for the business session and also named Mrs. Alice Smith to arrange for a dinner to be held at a later date. A message from Mrs. Richard Sherman of Delaware, district child welfare chairman, complimented the auxiliary on its work in that department. Mrs. Jane Joyce is welfare chairman. —:—

A class of candidates was initiated by the officers and drill team when Whitney Lodge No. 846, Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, met Wednesday night in the Central Labor Union hall.

A social hour followed and games and contests were held. Lunch was served in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. On the social committee were Mrs. Dorothy Benson, Mrs. Josephine Stoffer, Mrs. Ruth Hirsch, Mrs. Glenna Davis and Mrs. Betty Jo Gwinner. The next meeting, March 27, will be followed by a box social.

The annual midwinter picnic preceded the regular meeting of Prospect Chapter No. 69, OES at the Masonic Temple Friday night. Mrs. Florence Henry, matron protem, and Paul Davids, patron, were in charge. Seven past matrons were greeted as was Willard Dasher, worshipful master of Lodge No. 444, F.&A.M. of Prospect. Robert Morris night was observed with Mrs. Jane Denmar reading his biography and Mrs. Vera Herbster reading a poem by him. Past matrons will hold a supper in the club rooms March 22.

Initiation was conducted by Minnetonka Council 24, Degree of Pocahontas, Thursday night at the lodge hall. Mrs. Mary Gearhart presided. An invitation to confer degree work at a zone meeting in Columbus May 3 was accepted.

Prizes in games went to Mrs Myrtle Buckingham, Mrs. Ida Uncapher, Mrs. Helena Brown and Mrs. Goldie Roseberry. The new members initiated are Mrs Beulah Hoover and Mrs. Fay Solomon. Lunch was served by the social committee.

Plans were made to join other lodges in District No. 31, at a rally Friday night at Richwood, at a meeting of Kosciusko Lodge No. 58 IOOF, Monday night in the Odd Fellows hall. The open meeting, at which Richwood lodge members will be hosts, will be followed by a covered dish dinner. Plans also were made to meet at 7 p.m. next Monday night for a short business session before going to Richwood to confer the second degree on a class of candidates. Other business included plans for conferring the third degree on a class here April 1.

Mrs. Jerry Cornely

Before her marriage Mrs Cornely was Miss Noel Rita Frey. Details in the wedding column.

Weddings

St. Agnes Catholic Church in Orrville was the scene of the wedding of Miss Noel Rita Frey and Jerry Cornely Saturday, Feb. 23. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Frey of 186½ W. Church St. and the bridegroom's parents are Police Chief and Mrs. Justin Cornely of 351 W. Church St.

Officiating for the ceremony was Rev. Charles Hoot, pastor.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. Leslie S. Kovacs of Bath, who was the matron of honor and Miss Martha Ann Tobin of Marion, and Miss Carolyn Kohr of Massillon, bridesmaids.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess-styled gown of white velvet accented with a V-neckline, and a veil of bridal illusion. Her flowers were white roses and ivy.

The attendants' gowns were of velveteen and styled similar to that worn by the bride. Mrs. Kovacs was costumed in Persian Peacock and the bridesmaids wore Alpine rose. Their bouquets held white carnations.

Richard Cornely served as best man for his brother.

The wedding reception was at Riceland Inn. Both mothers wore navy costumes, navy and white accessories and corsages of white carnations.

Following a wedding trip to Washington, D C, and Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Cornely are making their home for the present with his parents.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of St. Mary Parochial High School with the class of 1955. Mrs. Cornely attended Airline School of the Pacific in Los Angeles, Calif. The bridegroom is employed by the Erie Railroad Co.

The wedding of Mrs. Jane Bayles and Howard L. Moler took place Saturday in Richmond, Ind. The ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace. Mrs. Moler is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Daniels of 497 Decatur St. and Mr. Moler is the son of Mrs Melissa Moler of 494 Decatur St. They are making their home at 497 Decatur St.

Galion Picks Principals For New Grade Schools

GALION — The Galion Board of Education Monday night appointed Jack Shuck and Howard Deppen as principals of Galion's two new elementary schools now under construction.

Mr. Shuck currently is head basketball coach and junior high physical education teacher, and Mr. Deppen is social science teacher at the Junior High School.

BOTH MEN received the unanimous approval of the board. Mr. Shuck will be the principal of the Renschville elementary school, and Mr. Deppen will have the Dawsett elementary post. Both schools are expected to be completed this fall.

Mr. Shuck, 30, has been in the Galion school system since September, 1950. He was graduated in February that year from Bowling Green State University and took a position as boys' supervisor at the Toledo Child Study Institute following graduation. In the summer of 1950 he was employed in the city recreation program at Bucyrus, his home town. Mr. Shuck's first position in the Galion schools was as elementary health and physical education instructor. He became basketball coach and assisted with football in 1952, at the same time continuing his elementary work.

Later he relinquished his assistance in the football program, and his duties were confined to basketball coaching and track. This year he has had physical education instruction with his coaching post. He is married to the former Janice King of Galion. Mr. Shuck is planning further college work this summer.

MR. DEPPEN, 43, is now in his 13th year in the Galion school system. He was graduated from Bowling Green State University in 1939. His experience has included 5½ years in elementary education work, three years in high school and the remainder of his teaching career in junior high school. He came to Galion from Kipton in Lorain County.

His experience has included teaching in Seneca County, Gibsonburg, Holmes-Liberty School in Crawford County and Lorain County, besides his work in Galion. He also has coached elementary basketball and football for a time since he has been here. Married, and the father of four children, Mr. Deppen is taking postgraduate work for his master's degree.

Other business of the board included approval of the purchase of a new school bus, 60-passenger capacity, for $6,040 from the Galion Motor Sales. The state director of transportation made this recommendation from bids received by the board at its February meeting.

The board adjusted the salary of Vernon Williams, janitor at the Junior High school. The sum of $500 will be added to his yearly salary. This includes $200 for completion of his 90-day probation period, and $300 for holding a boiler license.

PURCHASE OF A new mower, with snowplow attachment from the Jacobson Power Mower Co. of Columbus was authorized.

A motion also was made by the board approving change orders in construction of the bandroom in the new Senior High school addition, upon recommendation of the architects, and a change in prices of light fixtures for the new elementary schools.

A delegation of Edgewood Drive residents accompanied by City Councilman William Amick asked the board to sign a petition for the improvement of the street by paving. Property of the North Elementary School runs along one side of the drive. The matter was referred to City Solicitor Edward Jones for advice.

The board approved the payment of bills for the month totaling $7,369.01.

Local Music Club Honors Piano Trio At Youth Program

Monday night was a high point in the experience of three members of Youth of Lecture-Recital Club when they appeared on the annual youth program for the senior club and guests at the Women's Club Home.

Ellen Busler

Nancy Boger

Marilyn Kunert

It marked the climax of their musical participation in the club's activities since the three, Nancy Boger, Ellen Busler and Marilyn Kunert of Upper Sandusky are seniors. In a few weeks they will be graduated from Harding and the Upper Sandusky High Schools, going on to wider opportunities in the field of their musical development and eligibility to membership in the senior club. All three are pianists.

Miss Kunert opened the instrumental portion of the program with the first movement of "Moonlight Sonata," Beethoven. Miss Boger followed with "White Jasmine," Dungan and later Miss Busler played Chopin's "Opus 28 No. 6" and "Opus 23 No. 20."

Others appearing on the program in piano numbers included Carol Ann Scheff, Elaine Algie and Pat Brown who played piano duo selections, Elaine Coy and Suzanne Suter. Songs were by Margaretann Romine, accompanied by Mrs. Beaver Bricker, Youth of Lecture - Recital Club counselor, Gloria Caprino, accompanied by Mrs. J. Paul Goebel, Lecture-Recital Club president and Ruth Ann Carey, accompanied by Mrs. Bricker. Program aids were Peggy Jones, Jerry Maddox and Judy Cleveland. Jerry Fogle accompanied the Junior Federation of Music Clubs hymn.

Presiding at the refreshment table was Mrs. Lewis Wills and assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Paris Romine, Mrs. Norman Beidler, Mrs. Robert Boger and Mrs. LeRoy Schneider.

Revival Services Continue at LaRue

Services of the LeShana evangelistic crusade under way at the LaRue Methodist Church will continue through Sunday with Rev. David C. LeShana, field evangelist for Taylor University at Upland, Ind., preaching. Increasing attendance and interest is reported by the pastor, Rev. D. V. Whitenack. Mrs. LeShana who accompanied her husband to LaRue is assisting with the special music.

Each service is open to the general public but varous groups from the town and congregation are to receive special recognition and are urged to attend on specified nights, the pastor said.

Tonight, all teachers and classes of the Sunday School will mark this attendance emphasis; Wednesday night, the In His Name and Golden Hour Circles; Thursday night, Gleaners Circle and Happy Home Class, and Friday night, all families of the church and community.

Missionary night is set for Saturday night with showing of a film, "Angel in Ebony." It is the story of a Christian "spirit-filled" African boy, Sammy Morris, who came to this country for his education several years ago. Production of the film was by Taylor University. Conclusion of the campaign will be marked by the morning and evening services Sunday

Galion Resident Files Civil Suit Against City

BUCYRUS — The city of Galion is named defendant in a $5,000 action for money filed in Crawford County Common Pleas Court here by Oscar Wisler of Galion.

Mr. Wisler claims he was injured permanently on March 20, 1955, when he fell while stepping off the sidewalk onto a sewer drop, which, he charges, was negligently constructed and maintained. The incident occurred at the intersection of Harding Way East and Liberty St.

According to the petition, Mr. Wisler suffered torn ligaments and damaged muscles, nerves and blood vessels in the right knee. He asserts he suffers constant pain and is unable to bend or flex his right knee without suffering pain.

Kenton Studies Plans for New Truck Garage

Two-Story Structure Sought for City; Four Men Will Obtain Data

KENTON — Kenton's City Council Monday night held a discussion of a proposed new city building to house the city's trucks. The building proposed would be a two-story structure located on the new city sewage disposal plant grounds.

The first floor would house the trucks. The second floor would contain gravity-fed salt bins for loading the trucks for snow and ice removal work.

To Get Estimates

Council President Russell Pfeiffer appointed Councilmen Ira Musgrave and Jay Eddy, sewage disposal plant employe Emmett Hatcher and Merle Fleming, city safety-service director, to obtain estimates from contractors on the cost of erecting such a building. The men are to present their findings at the next council meeting when action is to be taken on the building.

Mr. Fleming proposed, and council accepted a plan to have Carl Bowers of Celina, a licensed first class sewage disposal plant operator, come to Kenton once a month for the next year to instruct and advise James Quinn, mahager of the city's new plant.

A complaint was filed by citizens of Kenton's south side who claimed that paper and refuse was blowing from the city's dump over the area. Mayor John Cook said temporary relief would be provided until the city can afford to buy an incinerator.

Mayor Cook announced that Brickyard Rd., a joint city-county road, will be scraped and repaired by the city this year. He also said E. Summit St., which is badly damaged, will be repaired in the near future and work on patching streets will begin as soon as weather permits, probably around April 1.

Orders Speed Signs

The mayor reported he had ordered for immediate delivery one dozen 20 mph signs which will be erected in school zones and hospital zones in the city.

Council was told the city is trying out 10 new automatic parking meters on Public Square this week. Council may replace all the old meters on the Square because of their high cost of maintenance.

A petition was received from a group of citizens asking that a four-way stop intersection be made at S. Wayne and Ohio streets. The matter was taken under study.

White House physician aboard the Canberra, reported to newsmen on escorting destroyers that Eisenhower was doing fine in building up his health.

Snyder said the President's ear ailment has cleared up and that he now is coughing only occasionally. A head cold from which he had suffered has about disappeared.

Eisenhower smiled broadly and waved a greeting to crew members at the rails of the destroyers Wood and Barton Monday afternoon as he circled the ships in a 35-foot motor launch.

The President, wearing a bright red cap and a tan windbreaker, was returning to the Canberra after trolling for fish off nearby Little San Salvador Island. Eisenhower was out about two hours but had no luck. His naval aide, Capt. E. P. Aurand, landed a big barracuda.

RICHARD M. MALL
Speaks at OSU Event

Professor at OSU To Address Joint Ad Club Meeting

Guest speaker at a joint meeting of the Ad Club of North Central Ohio and the Marion Sales-Ad Club Tuesday, March 26, will be Richard M. Mall, assistant professor in the department of speech at Ohio State University and director of public affairs, WLW-C television in Columbus. The meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. and will be held at the Talbot Hotel in Galion.

Mall is an instructor in radio and TV programming at the university, where he received Ph.D. degrees in 1949 and 1952. He also is the recipient of a B.S. in journalism from Kansas State University in 1940. He is currently in his seventh year as public affairs director at WLW-C where he is responsible for educational programming, civic interest and other public service programming. He is a member of the Columbus Radio and Television Executives Club and various professional speech associations.

Subject of Mall's talk will be, "I Wear Two Hats On Two Heads," in which he will outline the dual fields of education and TV, followed by a question-and-answer period. Members of both clubs will be contacted individually by telephone this week to encourage maximum attendance and prompt reservations for this annual joint-area meeting.

Egypt

regular traffic patterns. Of 11 tugs sunk, only three are back in service.

The Gaza Strip shared top attention with the canal.

The Egyptians said all the troops of the U. N. Emergency Force within the strip will be stationed along the Gaza-Israeli frontier Wednesday.

Cairo radio announced the impending withdrawal of the U. N. troops from their positions in the towns of the Mediterranean coastal area as U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold packed for talks in Cairo on the Gaza question and other Middle East issues. Hammarskjold will leave New York late today.

Will Leave Towns

The Cairo broadcast Monday night quoted Maj. Gen. Mohammed Hassan Abdel Latif, Egyptian governor in Gaza, as saying the UNEF command had agreed its troops would evacuate the headquarters building it occupied in Gaza City and all towns in the strip within 48 hours.

The UNEF command already was moving increasing numbers of troops to 24-hour guard duty along the line dividing Israel and Gaza, and many Egyptian military vehicles were showing up in the strip. The number of Egyptian military personnel in the area could not be determined.

Latif was set to take over UNEF command headquarters as soon as the U. N. officials moved out.

As Egyptian control expanded, Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir told Hammarskjold in New York that Israel will not agree to "a belligerent Egypt" returning to the Gaza Strip.

'Must Be Reversible'

Mrs. Meir told reporters the present situation in Gaza must be reversible, apparently meaning Israel thinks it is still possible to get the Egyptian administration out and re-establish U. N. control.

Her two-hour talk with Hammarskjold followed her request to Secretary of State Dulles for a tougher U. S. policy toward President Nasser and his government.

Dulles and Mrs. Meir issued a joint statement saying the United States "stood firmly by the hopes and expectations" it previously expressed concerning the Egyptian-Israeli dispute. But Dulles told a congressional committee in a closed session no new assurances had been given the Israeli foreign minister.

Premier? Who Cares

PARIS (AP) — The district prefect of Pontoise, a Paris suburb, sent questionnaires to 3,500 army conscripts in his area to find out how much they knew about their government. Only 15 per cent wrote back that Guy Mollet was premier while 70 per cent said they weren't interested or didn't know.

Arrives in Tunis

Plea for Independence Of Algeria Greets Nixon

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—Vice President Nixon was brought face-to-face today in this newly independent nation with demands for independence for neighboring Algeria.

"Liberty!" she shouted in Arabic. "We want liberty for the Algerian people. The French have killed Algerian children."

Nixon listened patiently while a Tunisian official translated her words into English. Then, without a word, he smiled and walked up the steps into the library office. He and his party are aware the United States is accused in some quarters of France of meddling in North African affairs.

The woman identified herself to newsmen afterward as a Mrs. Zarouche, Algerian wife of a Tunisian.

Bill Henry, Nixon's spokesman, said Nixon found labor leaders, businessmen and farm representatives of Tunisia, a former French protectorate, chorusing the demand that France give up Algeria, a rebellious territory which she considers part of the French homeland.

Excited Tunisian men, women and boys pelted Nixon with flower petals, applauded and screamed "Neexon, Neexon" from the U. S. Embassy as he strolled down flag-bedecked Bourguiba Avenue.

Nixon shook hands with hundreds of spectators.

Nixon spent several hours Monday night discussing Tunisia's economic plight with Prime Minister Habib Bourguiba.

Tunisian leaders, looking for outside assistance to bolster an economy hurt by the flight of French capital, are already passing on the word that Nixon has no proposals for substantial American financial assistance.

Ohio Senate To Vote Today On Teacher Certificate Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate scheduled a vote today on a bill to limit validity of a temporary teacher certificate to the school district which asked that the certificate be issued.

The Ohio Department of Education, in these days of teacher shortages, issues hundreds of temporary certificates every year on request of school superintendents.

Aim of Bill

The aim of the bill sponsored by Sen. Gordon Renner (R-Hamilton) is to keep a teacher — a temporary certificate in her hand —from shopping around for a job. If the Renner bill becomes law, it will force longtime holders of temporary certificates who want to move from job to job to prepare themselves for standard teacher certificates.

A constitutional proposal to help the governor draft out-of-state talent for top administrative posts cleared its first hurdle Monday night. It was approved by the Senate, 27-3. It now goes to the House and, if it gets a three-fifths vote there, will need majority approval by Ohio voters at the polls.

The Ohio constitution for more than 100 years has required that both elected and appointed officials of the state be "qualified electors." Principally, that means they must have lived in Ohio at least a year. The proposed change would eliminate that provision.

Listed as Secretary

As a result of the present constitutional provision, Charles Noble is on the state payroll as "secretary to the governor in charge of highway administration" although he is actually highway director. But, because he comes to Ohio from New Jersey, he cannot legally hold the title of highway director for another 10 months, when he will complete a year's residence here.

The Senate also passed a House-approved emergency bill to permit state universities to issue bonds to build off-campus dormitories and other buildings. The bill untangles a legal snarl which faces Ohio State University in the issuance of about six million dollars' worth of bonds The measure will be effective as soon as it is signed by Gov. C. William O'Neill.

The House passed and sent to the Senate bills to:

Increase the pay of county school board members from $5 to $8 a meeting.

Authorize county commissioners to operate traning schools for enforcement officers.

Ambassador Georgi N. Zaroubin.

The interview was distributed by Russia's Tass news agency, published in Berlin by the official East German news agency ADN, and broadcast by Moscow radio.

In order to permit simultaneous publication in Russia and in the Herald, a morning paper of 53,000 daily circulation in western Michigan, the release time of Monday night was agreed on.

Clapp said he wrote the letter Feb. 26 and mailed it to the Russian Embassy in Washington.

"Frankly, when I mailed the letter I had little hope it would be answered," Clapp said.

Later Clapp received a telephone call from Second Secretary Vladimir K. Lobachev, who asked for help in translating the phase "the real McCoy."

Crestline Trucker Hurt In Crawford Accident

BUCYRUS — Two minor injuries were sustained in the single accident investigated Monday by patrolmen of the Bucyrus post.

The mishap occurred at 12:40 p.m., just west of Crestline on Crawford County Road 15 when a westbound pick-up truck driven by Charles Kelly, 28, of near Crestline, went out of control and rolled over, patrolmen said.

According to the report, the truck spun around and hit a telephone pole before flipping over. The vehicle reportedly was demolished.

Kelly received lacerations on the ear and abrasions of the left leg. A passenger in the truck, LeRoy Jordan, 23, of Crestline, sustained lacerations on the hand and finger.

Jail Escapee Here Captured In Cleveland

Warren E. Simones, 32, of near Marion, the man who last Nov. 18 walked out of the Marion County jail by using the ruse of paying another prisoner's fine, is being held by Cleveland police on charges of larceny and burglary.

Marion Police Chief Justin Cornely said he was notified by Cleveland police today that Simones was arrested there on March 14, appeared before the Cuyahoga County grand jury, was indicted and is being held in the Cuyahoga County jail pending trial in common pleas court there.

Simones was bound over to the Marion County grand jury on a $1,500 bond from Municipal Court after he was arrested in Kentucky and returned to Marion on a charge of issuing a fraudulent check to the V & S Bar here.

Placed in the county jail pending his appearance before the grand jury, he represented himself as being another prisoner to a deputy sheriff on Sunday, Nov. 18, paid the other prisoner's $9 fine, was released and disappeared. He later was indicted by the grand jury on the fraudulent check charge.

City police reported that he also is wanted in Delaware on a charge of burglary of the General Castings Co. office where he allegedly stole a check writer and some blank checks. The check he is accused of passing at the V & S Bar reportedly was written on one stolen from the Delaware plant.

Dental Academy Studies Professional Problems

The regular monthly meeting of the district Dental Academy was held at Hotel Harding Monday night, featuring a round table discussion concerning problems encountered in the dental profession by the 15 members present.

Dr. Thor Nydblah of Mount Gilead, program chairman, moderated the discussion during which X-rays, extractions and other phases of dental work were considered. Also serving on the program committee was Dr. Francis George of Mount Gilead.

The brief business session was conducted by Dr. William Williams of Marion, president of the group. The April meeting will be cancelled to allow members the opportunity to attend the post college assembly for dentists at Ohio State University next month.

The May meeting will be held May 20 at the hotel and will be highlighted by the election of officers. Dentists' assistants will be their guests that evening.

Seamen Survive Fire, Two Blasts and Sinking

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Forty-three lucky seafarers rolled toward Key West today on a rescue vessel after surviving a fire, two explosions and the foundering of their own ship.

The Coast Guard said none of the tanker Perama's crew was hurt.

MRS. REYNOLD GAIRING
To Appear Here Thursday

Cleveland Social Worker To Speak At Local Meeting

Mrs. Reynold Gairing, director of the Division of Careers in Social Work of the Cleveland Welfare Federation, will be the guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Marion Social Workers Association at the YMCA Thursday noon.

The speaker's topic will deal with recruitment of new workers into the social work profession, a topic of particular interest locally at this time.

Mrs. Gairing will explain opportunities in social work, training requirements and scholarship resources.

During a dinner meeing at the home of Mrs. Frederick Rea Thursday night she will address a group of approximately 20 junior and senior high school counselors from local schools as well as representatives of different types of case work found in the county.

She will emphasize the need for additional workers in the growing profession and explain the various phases of social work which now are available and expanding.

Mrs. Gairing's experience includes work with the Family Service Association of Cleveland. She was former welfare director of the Junior League there. Her experience in the field of social work extends over an approximate 25 year period.

A native of Union, S.C., Mrs. Gairing took her undergraduate work in the south and attended the School of Applied Social Science at Western Reserve where she received her graduate degree.

Winter Hurls Final Blast in Middle States

Although today was the last full day of winter and spring enters the scene tomorrow, many sections of the country were experiencing mid-winter conditions today.

The spring season starts at 4:17 p.m. Wednesday.

Around Marion and the area temperatures were mild while snow was falling in many northern Midwest states where the second heavy snowfall in less than a week was recorded.

The mercury prevailed in the 40s Monday and early today and rainfall throughout the day yesterday and last night measured .28 of an inch, according to local weather observers. The temperature reached a high of 45 yesterday but dropped only four degrees for a low of 41 during the night. At 10 o'clock this morning, the mercury stood at 48.

A year ago today was much cooler with the weather records showing a high of 32 and a low of 20.

Occasional rain and drizzle throughout central Ohio is expected to end today with cloudy skies and colder temperatures forecast for tonight with a low of 36. Wednesday will be partly cloudy with a high of 48.

Snow piled up to a foot in sections of Nebraska and South Dakota and there were lesser amounts in parts of Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan. Blizzards hit some of the same areas last Thursday and Friday.

A mixture of freezing rain, sleet and snow occurred in lower Michigan during the night while snow fell in most of Wisconsin. The rain or drizzle was widespread from Missouri and Illinois eastward through the Ohio Valley and southward to the South Atlantic Coast.

Appliance Store Here Files for Incorporation

Plans to incorporate and issue stock to provide funds for enlargement and improvement of facilities were announced today by Paul W. and Muriel E. Warner, owners of Warner's Appliance Store at 136 S. Main St.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown reported that the articles of incorporation for Warner's, Inc. has been filed with his office with Paul and Muriel listed as the incorporators and Eugene Yazel listed as their statutory agent.

Mrs. Warner said there is to be a stock issue in the near future. The incorporation is for the appliance store business, she said.

Will Face Charges

Sickles Due for Release From General Hospital

James Patrick Sickles, 31-year-old burglar suspect from Newark who was wounded in a running gun battle with Marion police Feb. 13, is slated for release from General Hospital "within the next few days."

He is reported in "good" condition at the hospital today and one of his attending physicians said that he now is able to be up and walk around. Gunshot wounds he suffered in the lower abdomen reportedly have healed and his left arm, severely injured by slugs from police guns, is on the mend. His doctor said that the left arm must remain in a cast for some time to come and will require further surgery but that his general condition now is such that he may be released from the hospital "within a few days."

POLICE CHIEF Justin Cornely said today that a 24-hour a day guard is being maintained over Sickles, just as it has since the day he was taken to the hospital in "critical" condition with five gunshot injuries.

Charges of burglary, possession of burglary tools and shooting with intent to kill have been filed against Sickles in Municipal Court by Marion police.

Chief Cornely said that as soon as he is released from the hospital he will be taken before Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen for arraignment.

POLICE ALLEGE that Sickles was caught in the act of burglarizing Carl's Auto Parts warehouse on Oak St. on the night of Feb. 13.

They said that police patrolmen Marshall Wilds and John Johnston spotted him in the warehouse and as he crawled out of a hole knocked in a large loading door to gain entrance Patrolman Wilds twice ordered him to stop or "I'll shoot."

After the second warning, police said Sickles turned and fired at Patrolman Wilds with a nine-shot automatic pistol. A running gun battle resulted and Patrolman Wilds was struck by one of the shot from Sickles' gun, police allege. The slug struck Patrolman Wilds in the upper left chest but did not injure him seriously. He was released from the hospital a few days later and is back on duty.

Drivers and the charges levied were: Ralph Baker, 27, of Lexington, failure to display license plates, fined $15 and costs; Thurman Dyer, 40, of Corydon, Ind., failure to have an axle tax permit and no license plates on tractor, held in Bucyrus city jail pending hearing, and Frederick Smith, 32, of near Bucyrus, parking on the highway, also held in Bucyrus city jail pending hearing.

Watt To Lead Fight Against Bill in Senate

Arthur Watt, Marion County recorder, will be in Columbus Wednesday to participate in a meeting of members of the County Recorders Association of Ohio.

The session is designed to outline plans to block the passage of legislation shortly to come before the Ohio Senate relative to making county recorder's offices responsible for recording the rules and regulations of any officer, board, bureau or commission of any municipality before the same could become effective.

An attempt is being made to block passage of the legislation since the bill providing for the proposed new law makes no provision for additional facilities or compensation to county recorder's offices for the extra cost, labor and time necessary to do the added work, according to Mr. Watt.

The bill has already been recommended for passage by the Senate's Code Revision Committee, whose members include Senator J. E. Simpson, representing Marion. Mr. Watt pointed out that the legislation has been discussed and the hearing already held. The date when the proposal will come on the Senate floor for a vote has not yet been determined.

Mr. Watt will represent Marion County as well as the state association, of which he is first vice president.

and paid back "every cent" of it.

Kennedy told newsmen that "Mr. Beck's description of his financial transactions with union funds, which he describes as loans, is not the same as our information."

Kennedy said the committee was investigating the loans to Beck long before the union president mentioned them on television. "We would rather describe them as financial transactions than loans," Kennedy added.

Marion Area Auto Mishaps

Three minor no injury traffic accidents were investigated Monday by Marion police. Two no injury accidents occurred in Marion County.

One city mishap involved cars driven by Dorothy R. Smith, 37, of 328 Summit St. and Eloise M. Gromes, 55, of Bergenfield, N.J. It occurred at W. Church and S. Prospect streets at 8:11 a.m., police reported.

Each of the other two accidents caused less than $100 total damage, police estimated.

2 Drivers Arrested

Drivers were arrested and cited to appear in Marion Municipal Court Wednesday in both of the non-injury Marion County accidents investigated by local patrolmen during the last 24 hours.

Harvey F. Johnson, 60, of near Prospect was cited on a charge of failure to yield the right of way when his auto pulled out of County Road 73 onto Route 4 in the path of a semi trailer-tractor outfit, patrolmen said.

The northbound combination driven by Francis H. Morley, 37, of Springfield, swerved to the right to avoid a collision with the Johnson auto and the trailer jackknifed into the front of the tractor, doing minor damage, the report indicated.

Patrolmen said there was no physical contact between the autos when the mishap occurred at 10:30 a.m., about 10 miles south of Marion.

A Bucyrus driver was arrested on a charge of failure to stop within assured clear distance in the second mishap investigated on Route 4, about one mile north of Marion at 5:10 p.m.

The northbound vehicle driven by George L. Korich, 21, of Bucyrus, struck the back end of an auto driven by Mrs. Howard C. Hinamon, 31, of near Marion.

Patrolmen said the impact of the collision sent the Hinamon car to the side of the road where it came to rest in a ditch. It reportedly had been slowed for a vehicle in front of it at the time of the collision. Moderate damage was done to both autos.

Body of Ex-Marionite Found in Florida Bay

The body of Merlyn R. Whitney, 64, of Sandusky, a former resident of Marion, was found floating in Sarasota Bay, Sarasota, Fla., late Thursday afternoon, March 14, by fishermen.

According to information given Sheriff Ross Boyer of Sarasota, Mr. Whitney had been staying at the Schaeffer Motel for several days. He was a retired school teacher. He spent his boyhood in Marion and was a member of the class of 1912 at Marion High School. A brother, Leland Whitney, is an attorney in Cleveland.

The body was found by Cecil Tatum of Sarasota and W. A. Albritton of Samoset who notified the sheriff. It was identified by Chester Sturm, a lifetime friend who had stopped in Sarasota to visit Mr. Whitney. He had been missing from the motel since early morning, according to an employe.

Although the death has been reported unofficially as a drowning, circumstances surrounding the incident had not been determined for lack of witnesses.

54 at Harding Are Named to Honor Society

Induction Ceremony For Senior Students Will Be Held April 9

Fifty-four Harding High School seniors have been named to the National Honor Society, Darl Gatchell, principal, announced today.

These students, representing 15 per cent of the graduating class of 360, were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership and character.

Seniors in the upper one-third of the class scholastically were considered for the honor. Leadership and activities next were taken into consideration by a faculty committee, Mr. Gatchell said. Students' character ratings were then judged through a pupil-teacher rating system.

In the analysis of character all faculty members were entitled to a vote as well as the seniors in the upper 33 per cent of their class.

New Members Listed

Those elected to the society are: Beverly Ann Armbruster, Paul Howard Bailey, Owen Marlo Barrett, Nancy Jane Boger, Richard C. Busick, Nancy Lee Byrd, Sandra Jean Coffae, Sondra Dee Coon, Gary Alan Dix, Sally Jean Faust, Dixie Lee Geddis, Beverly Ann Gettys, John Dennis Guthrie, Richard Smiley Hastings, William Melvin Hull, Sandra Laureen Jenkins.

John Edward Kerr, Melinda Kohler, Judith Ann Kunkle, Saralee Larimer, Sandra Kay Leech, James Moffett Lightner, Ruth Ellen Mason, Marilyn Kay Matteson, Richard Stroud Mickley, Jay Edward Middleton, Ruth Ann Miller, Cara Sue Minshall, Hannah Morgan, Constance Jo Morrison.

Loretta Jean McCartney, Thomas Bruce McLean, Nancy Ann Neal, Dana Kay Plough, Francis Eugene Remmy, Emily Darlene Rinnert, Frances Elizabeth Salyer, Alix Noan Shoup, Susan Jane Smiley, Ramona Lucille Smith, Sandra Kay Smith, Cynthia Elsa Snow, Kenneth E. Somerlot.

Judith Ann Speck, Philip Alden Sykes, Jan Taylor, Nancy Marie Thomas, Linda Lee Thurston, David Browning Walker, Heidi Kay Weinbaum, Donna Lee Wiley, Gary Allen Williams, Barbara Ann Wintgens and Janice LoRee Young.

Ronald Lee Rish also is a member of the group by virtue of transfer from the Harpster High School National Honor Society.

Parents To Attend Service

The induction service will be held April 9 at 8 p.m. in the high school lunchroom, followed by a tea for parents who will be invited to attend the ceremony.

The faculty committee in charge of the induction program and supervision of the choice of this year's members is composed of Miss Isabel Freer, Emil Lisak, Miss Ruth Turner, Mrs. Mildred Grigsby, Miss Mary Jo Stafford, Miss Lucile Foreman, Mr. Gatchell and Ray Silver.

Senate Committee Okays Whittaker For Judicial Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee Monday unanimously approved President Eisenhower's nomination of Judge Charles Evans Whittaker for elevation to the Supreme Court.

The vote, taken behind closed doors, followed a public hearing at which Fyke Farmer, a Nashville, Tenn., lawyer who described himself as "in sympathy with international communism," denounced Whittaker at length as "opposed to human liberty."

Farmer questioned some of Whittaker's decisions on constitutional law.

Whittaker, a Kansas City Republican and a judge of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals, testified for less than five minutes before the committee went into a brief closed meeting and announced its unanimous approval of his nomination.

Gingery said he then picked up the pump-action riot gun from the police car seat and leveled it out the side window.

"He saw it and ducked," Gingery said. "He ran around behind the car. It's a good thing he did. I tried the trigger, but nothing happened. Then I thought of the safety.

Fires Shot at Him

"I saw him through the rear window pointing at me. He fired a shot and a bullet whizzed past me. I pointed the gun at the window and pulled the trigger. Then I grabbed the thing (the pumping lever) and pulled the trigger again."

The charges caught Hassett in the side and midsection, killing him instantly.

State police said all but $4 of the loot was recovered from under the front seat of Hassett's car and that two women tellers of the bank identified the young man as the gunman.

Hoffa Learns

By Victor Riesel

James Riddle Hoffa was so busy living by his own tough code he forgot he was code No. 1705807 in the FBI files. He knows his own code well but he forgot that it says there's always somebody just a little tougher. That somebody was the FBI when it closed in on him on charges of tampering with government files —and bribery.

VICTOR RIESEL

This surprised the man, for no one and nothing had ever before balked him. Once, though history has not yet recorded it, Hoffa wanted to build a stone fence around his home.

He inquired about the masons rate per hour and chuckled when he found it higher than his own teamsters got—and more than he wanted to pay.

So he decided to split the rock himself. Soon he wielded a heavy hammer and cracked rock in a way which would have crushed most other men with fatigue. And with his own tough hands he built the stone wall.

Physically and psychologically Jimmy Hoffa has lived behind that stone wall ever since.

THERE ARE MANY who think they know what this man of the moment wants — money, power, prestige, presidency of the teamsters, national respectability, world prominence, the admiration of his buddies. But no one really knows, for no one is his confidant. Fact is that Hoffa had almost all these in his rough-hewn mitt.

Today he is president of the million dollar Michigan Teamsters' Local 299, president of Detroit Joint Council 43, ninth vice - president of the International Teamsters Brotherhood, secretary - treasurer of the Teamsters Temple Assn., president of the Michigan Conference of Teamsters, negotiating chairman of 23 states for all teamsters on highway and city transportation and for the Central States Drivers Council.

Hoffa also is chairman of the Teamsters' Central States Conferences and dominant trustee of the Central States Teamsters' Welfare Fund, which has placed millions in banks throughout the midwest. He is also trustee for Locals 247 and 614 — which means he directs them as though he were president and board of directors rolled into one.

HE IS ALSO the power patron for the eastern teamsters, which leaves only the western fief of horseman, Frank Brewster, as a barony independent of the ever-whirling Jimmy.

As for the teamsters' presidency, he obviously could have had that anytime he wished. Late last April, I learned from my hospital bed that Dave Beck had arisen at a teamster dinner — after Hoffa had been honored the night before by 3,000 world renowned leaders and their followers — and said Jimmy was his heir.

Weeks later it was learned that Beck had asked a close personal friend, a Chicagoan, to go to Jimmy in Detroit and ask him to create the office of teamsters' executive vice-president.

Beck's plan was to have Hoffa nominate him at the September 1957 convention in Miami Beach, accept election and then resign within the year — leaving automatic succession to Hoffa.

SO WHAT WAS it Hoffa wanted? Wealth? He has that. Among his other ventures is the construction of an office skyscraper for commercial rentals. Yet Hoffa's code was to remain the defiant one. No one could break him from even his grimmest friends.

The inner motivating drive was to tell everybody to go to hell.

Senate probe? The pattern was easy, according to the FBI's bribery charges. Just buy your way in.

As the code has always had it—there is always somebody in a district attorney's office who will "leak" information.

The code also said not to worry about files being subpenaed. It is, for example, the practice of Hoffa's Local 299 to destroy all financial records each year — whether they need it or not, for storage space.

ONCE, WHEN asked by a congressional committee who gave him the authority, Hoffa said the teamsters' constitution did. How? By the section which gives each Joint Council of Teamsters the right to pass its own by-laws.

Local 299 is under the jurisdiction of Teamsters Council 43 which authorized the burning of the books.

Who is president of Joint Council 43? James Riddle Hoffa. Why burn them? Because nobody is going to tell Hoffa not to burn them. Nobody ever talked back to Hoffa.

Not until Hoffa's code ran into the FBI's code. And now they say Hoffa may have to live a bit behind another kind of wall. If so, was it worth it?

$75,000 AWARD. The first annual "Atoms for Peace" award, including $75,000 cash, goes to Danish physicist Nils Bohr for his work as chairman of Denmark's atomic energy commission and his appeals for development of atomic energy for peaceful uses. Bohr, 71, won a Nobel Prize in 1922 for establishing the theoretical explanation for the atomic phenomena of radiation. The "Atoms for Peace" award was established by the three grandsons of Henry Ford.

Soil Bank System Not Working Out Well as Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Agriculture Department survey indicated today that the $1,200,000,000 soil bank program may be only about 50 per cent efficient in reducing crop acreages in a period of surpluses.

A report on farmers' 1957 plans showed prospective plantings of 333 million acres or about 12 million acres less than last year.

But the department had reported previously that farmers had signed agreements to retire nearly 24 million acres of cropland from production this year under offer of soil bank subsidies.

The difference in these figures indicates, officials said, that some farmers are increasing their operations — a development which is offsetting in part reductions by soil bank participants.

The planting survey did indicate, however, that the soil bank program may make some progress in reducing acreages of the big surplus crops, such as wheat, corn, cotton, rice and tobacco.

WCTU Chapters Stage Joint Institute in City

Joining for an institute Wednesday, the Kirkpatrick and the Marion Mary Harris Armor WCTU groups sponsored a program in the community rooms at the West Town Branch of National City Bank. Members of the Kirkpatrick union were in charge in the morning and Mrs. Ira Beers presided. She played a piano solo to open the meeting and devotions were by Mrs. Harold Brooks.

A reading, "The Big Lie," was given by Mrs. Helen Neff and an original poem, "God Is Near," was presented by Mrs. John Benge. "This Freedom Land of Ours" was given by Mrs. Imo Scott, director of the Marion County WCTU Christian citizenship department. Mrs. Nellie Likens spoke briefly and Mrs. Beers' subject was, "Do We Take Our Christian Citizenship Seriously?" A carry-in dinner was served at noon.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Alma Snider presided. She presented a poem to open the session and vocal solos were by Mrs. Joan Kurtz accompanied by Mrs. C. W. Davis. Mrs. Carol Jobe presented, "In the Death Cell." Piano solos were played by Mrs. Davis and devotions were by Mrs. W. E. Thomas on, "Jesus, Our Friend." Mrs. C. A. Thomas, Marion County WCTU president, offered prayer. County institute date was listed as March 28 at the Kensington Church of the Nazarene. Guests were the county president and Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Kurtz, Mrs. Ed Ellington, Miss Iva Snider and Miss Colleen Jobe.

Retrial Under Way

CINCINNATI (AP) — The defense started presentation of evidence today in the retrial of Denver Powell, 46, on a first-degree murder charge.

Judge Louis J. Schneider Monday ruled that a statement made by Powell to police after arrest was admissable as evidence. The defense sought to bar the statement as not voluntary.

Powell, of El Centro, Calif., is accused of taking part in the 1949 holdup - slaying of delicatessen operator John Schreck

Ford Worker Killed, 25 Hurt In Plant Blast

Men Seared and Cut By Flying Debris in Explosion in Booth

DETROIT (AP)—An explosion at Ford Motor Co.'s giant Rouge plant fatally injured one workman and sent 25 to hospitals with burns, cuts and broken bones Monday night. Five were listed as critically hurt.

John Goodwin, 56-year-old Detroit inspector, died of injuries at 8:45 a.m. today His post was near the explosion scene.

In Paint Spray Booth

The blast occurred in a paint spray booth where new automobile frames were moved through on a conveyor belt for painting. The cause was not determined.

The department went back in operation with the start of the midnight shift, about 5½ hours after the explosion. The painting operation, however, was idle because of the damage.

About 2,000 workers were in the building when the explosion ripped out 500 feet of glass and brick wall, threw workmen off their feet, and set off a paint-fed fire that was extinguished quickly.

The plant, on the outskirts of Detroit, is the world's largest industrial installation. It is a collection of buildings on a 2,000-acre site.

Men Came Running

Carmen Sarotte, a 37-year-old general foreman, was one of the workmen standing outside the building when the blast sent flames shooting out of the mouth of the oven where the frames entered.

"Dazed and burning men came running toward us along the platform where the frames are loaded," he said. "We grabbed them, tore their burning clothes from them and then beat the fire out with our hands. We handled about five."

One man, his clothes flaming, stumbled over a guard rail and started running, said Henry J. Hill, a 39-year-old arc welder who was standing close by.

He tripped the running man and threw him to the ground.

"I grabbed a coat off a rack, wrapped him in it and beat him with my hands," he said.

About a quarter of the building was damaged, a Ford spokesman said. He gave no immediate estimate of the damage.

Man Fined $450, Costs On 3 Traffic Charges

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Otis Byrd, of Warren, was fined $450 and sentenced to 30 days in jail in Welshfield Justice Court for reckless driving, speeding and resisting arrest Monday.

State highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies said they chased Byrd's car at speeds up to 100 miles an hour on Ohio 422 early Monday. They said he ran through three road blocks near Warren and was finally stopped when he rammed a new sheriff's cruiser.

Officers said before the chase, Byrd had been stopped for speeding and ordered to drive to a justice of the peace for arraignment. En route to court he sped away from the patrol car behind him.

Akron Market Held Up For Third Time in Year

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A United Rubber Workers co-op market was held up by gunmen Monday night for the third time within a year. Four hours later two men police believe were the same pair held up the South Street Market. Money stolen totaled nearly $4,000.

At the co-op market, Manager Michael Kovach and five employes were herded into the basement by the gunmen, who cleaned out a cash drawer about 9 p.m. Kovach estimated the loss at $1,800.

Donald Mosley, manager of the other market, said his place was closed when the two men rapped on the window and asked to buy milk. Once admitted, they made Mosley produce two money bags and forced two employes into an office Mosley said his store's loss was $1,947.50.

Congressmen Ask Support of Israel's Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional demands for firm support of Israel's position in her dispute with Egypt arose again today in the wake of Egypt's return to the Gaza Strip.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) said developments in the crisis added urgency to his advocacy of a strengthened and "permanent" United Nations Emergency Force.

He spoke out in an interview after Cairo radio quoted the Egyptian governor of Gaza as announcing all U.N. troops would leave towns within the strip within 48 hours.

"If Egyptian troops are moved in," Mansfield said, "it will create a threat to peace. If that happens, we should request an immediate, emergency session of the General Assembly to deal with the situation."

Sen Sparkman (D-Ala), like Mansfield a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a separate interview the United States has an "obligation" to support Israel.

Secretary of State Dulles told a closed committee yesterday the United States had made no secret promises to Israel.

Dulles, pressed as to whether this country has promised to back up Israel's claim to the right of free passage of ships through the Gulf of Aqaba, was quoted by other senators as replying there were no commitments beyond the expression of "hopes and expectations" of such a development.

Nevertheless, Sparkman said, this country has a moral commitment "to do everything we can to make certain that navigation through the gulf is not interfered with."

Motorist Protests Arrest for Driving Under Speed Limit

CLEVELAND (AP)—David Benis, 50, who objects to driving more than 40 to 45 m.p.h., has asked for an investigation of the alleged "abusiveness" of an Ohio Turnpike patrolman who arrested him Sunday night for driving too slowly.

Benis, of Cleveland, said he was going about 42 m.p.h. when the officer stopped him, then ordered him to follow the cruiser. When he failed to keep up, Benis said, the officer stopped him again, then took him to Newton Falls Police Station in Trumbull County.

Benis told patrol chief Lt. John L. Bishop the officer spoke "so roughly" that his 7-year-old daughter began to cry.

A self-employed truck driver, Benis told a newsman that speeds of 50 m.p.h. "burn up tires and motor oil and are physically and mentally unhealthy."

Bishop promised to investigate.

Training in First Aid Advised for All Citizens

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Army medical expert today advocated a nationwide voluntary program of first aid training for every American—from sixth-graders up — to prepare for a possible nuclear attack.

Col. Joseph R. Shaffer said Russia already has a compulsory training plan of this type, and that if the Russians knew this nation was similarly prepared it might be a deterrent to possible attack.

Shaffer told reporters at a sectional meeting of the American College of Surgeons "a nationwide bear-down on first aid training would pay immediate dividends" in dealing with accidents in the home and elsewhere.

Strike Averted On NYC; U.S. Board Steps In

Trainmen Had Voted To Strike Wednesday From Buffalo West

CLEVELAND (AP) — A strike called for 6:30 a.m. Wednesday against the New York Central system was averted today when the National Railway Mediation Board entered the dispute between the carrier and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, a NYC spokesman said.

The railroad spokesman said NYC had been informed from Washington that the board had taken jurisdiction and later would assign a mediator and set a time for a conference of both sides in the dispute.

Strike notices issued to 3,000 trainmen in the railroad's service between Buffalo and Chicago are coming down, the NYC spokesman said, and "there will be no strike and no need for legal steps on the part of the railroad."

W. E. B. Chase, brotherhood vice president, said the walkout was authorized Monday night by the union's general committee of New York Central lines west. The action, he said, followed the company's refusal at a conference Monday to make a move on grievances that led to an unauthorized walkout by brakemen here and in Buffalo Sunday.

Chase said the 23 grievances included "indiscriminate discipline of brotherhood members for so-called violation of rules, the unwarranted firing of a road crew at Buffalo, and failure of management to comply with agreed-to working conditions."

Accusing the NYC of failure to live up to 1953 contract obligations, Chase said the complaints included what he termed failure of the railroad to return employes to their proper terminal after work; poor living conditions in cabooses; and the use of employes from other districts in the Erie district (which extends from Bauffalo to Cleveland).

Freeze Is Needed For Syrup Season

CHARDON, Ohio (AP) — Unless there is an unexpected sharp freeze in the next day or so, the maple sugar season will be over.

The warm weather of the last week has cut the season short, and total production will average only 40 to 50 per cent of last year, Robert Smith, publicist for the Geauga County Maple Festival, predicted today.

Syrup is still selling in the Chardon area for $5.50 a gallon, the same as last year. But the price will go up unless a freeze extends the season. The weather bureau predicts a low of 33 tonight and 30-32 Wednesday night.

The soft maples have already started to bud and the hard maples, which produce the syrup, are about ready to do so. The sap continues to flow after budding, but it has a strong, undesirable flavor.

Two New York Papers Hike Price to 10 Cents

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Journal-American announced today it will increase its price to 10 cents a copy, starting Wednesday. The weekday price has been five cents.

The New York World-Telegram & Sun had announced Monday it would increase its price from 5 cents to 10 cents.

Both are afternoon newspapers.

Six Peronistas Bribe Guard, Flee Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—The escape of six top Peronistas from their Argentine prison to asylum in Chile has dealt a strong blow to the prestige of Provisional President Pedro Aramburu's regime.

Anger swept the capital as word spread that six lieutenants of deposed Juan D. Peron bribed their way out of supposedly escape-proof Rio Gallegos Prison, 1,200 miles south of Buenos Aires in bleak Patagonia, and effortlessly crossed the Chilean border 50 miles away.

In a belated show of action, the government arrested the prison staff for questioning and replaced them with frontier guards.

Diehard Peronistas openly derided the government. Anti-Peronistas expressed fear the dramatic escape might inspire a drive to restore Peron, now in Venezuelan exile.

The six who fled were:

Hector J. Campora, Peronista president of the Chamber of Deputies.

Walking through the gates with passes reportedly issued by the chief guard, identified as Juan de la Cruz Ocampo, the six climbed into a waiting station wagon and sped off to Punta Arenas, south Chilean port city 150 miles away. The Chilean government granted them political asylum in accordance with Latin-American tradition.

The six men had been imprisoned for a year and a half, since Peron's overthrow, charged with various crimes.

Troop Pullback Okayed

LONDON (AP) — The foreign ministers of the seven-nation Western European Union were reported to have agreed today that Britain can withdraw about 15,000 of her troops from West Germany in the next 12 months.

To ease her hard-pressed government finances, Britain had wanted to pull out 30,000 of the 75,000 to 80,000 men she has stationed on the European continent.

Injunction Dissolved

CINCINNATI (AP) — Common Pleas Judge John M. Renner Monday dissolved a temporary injunction, barring Decor Corp. from negotiating with the United Mine Workers, so that a union representation dispute can be settled by the National Labor Relations Board.

The Allied Industrial Workers union obtained the injunction Feb. 28, charging the mine workers called a strike at the plant and after obtaining bargaining rights for workers, called if off.

Uniforms Changed

Drum and Bugle Corps To Launch New Season

Learning new music and the proper execution of new drills highlights the activities of the Marion Cavaliers Drum and Bugle Corps as its launches its 1957 season.

Corps rehearsals once a week and other sectional practices are in preparation for the drum corps competitive season which will open in June.

The Cavaliers, sponsored by Bird - McGinnis Post No. 162, American Legion, will appear in new uniforms this year. A military style, they will be black and white with red accents. White Eisenhower style jackets with black trim will top black trousers with a white stripe. Cadet shako hats will be black and white with a large white plume on top and waist sashes will be red. Approximately 55 new uniforms are being purchased.

NEW BUGLES also were added this year, including bass bugles, French horns and also soprano horns. The corps has 33 horns at present but would like to increase this number to at least 36. Officers of the corps have pointed out that the bugles have the new rotary valves, giving each bugle two valves. The extra valve makes it possible for the bugler to play many additional notes in the scale.

Eight new musical numbers are being added to the corps' repertoire, each of which must be memorized. Musical director for the corps is Gene Pletcher.

Drill instructor is Wayne Willis, who has prepared a new drill which members of the corps are learning at the present time. Many hours of rehearsal are put in by the corps to perfect the drill and synchronize it with the music.

Also in preparing for the new season, drums used in the corps are reconditioned and rechromed with Robert Erickson, the corps' instrument repairman, in charge.

Enrollment in The Cavaliers this year is still open, William Wetterauer, president and business manager, has pointed out, explaining that experience is not necessary. The corps practices each Sunday afternoon at the Marion Armory and sectional practices are held Monday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at Cavalier Hall at 125 E. Center St. Further information can be obtained from Mr. Wetterauer.

DUE TO THE increase in the number of personnel in the corps, a larger truck to carry equipment will be needed. Plans are under way to purchase a small van type truck in which cabinets for uniforms and sections for hats can be built, leaving space for instruments and equipment.

The Cavaliers are scheduled to appear at Bellefontaine on April 7 in the annual Midwestern Drum and Bugle Corps Circuit clinic. The clinic will be held in conjunction with the judges association and each corps will present a short exhibition on which they will be judged and criticized.

Anna Gordon WCTU Sees Pictures on Haiti

Music for a meeting of the Anna Gordon WCTU Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. C. Bowman of Bellevue Ave. was by Mrs. Gene Decker who sang, "No Man Careth for My Soul" and "When We See Christ." She was accompanied by Mrs. Betty Brewer Devotions were by Mrs. L. E. Weir.

Mrs. Bessie Thornberry gave a report on the last meeting and a letter was read from Mrs. Elizabeth Smart of Washington D.C. Mrs. Lillian Tong gave two readings, "The Spirit of Forgiveness" and "If Christ Should Come Tonight." Plans were discussed on making socks and scrapbooks for the veterans home at Sandusky and sending an Easter box to the home in Dayton. Mrs. Bowman showed pictures and talked on her trip to Haiti and Jamaica. Plans were made for a joint institute with the Frances Willard Union April 3 at the Greenwood EUB Parish House.

Probe Into Alleged Salk Price Fixing Is Slated To Begin

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department indicated Monday it is ready to conduct a grand jury investigation into alleged price fixing in the sale of Salk polio vaccine.

It did so by qualifying four attorneys in its antitrust division to appear before a grand jury here. The authorizations, made no direct reference to polio vaccine, but authorized the four attorneys to conduct an investigation into alleged antitrust violations "by certain persons, firms, corporations, associations and their members and others" in the manufacture, distribution, purchase and sale of "drugs and pharmaceutical products."

Marion Legionnaires Attend District Parley

Marion's two American Legion posts, Bird - McGinnis Post No. 162 and GI Post No. 584, were represented at the Sixth District conference held Sunday at Hebron.

Attending from Post 162 were Commander T. H. McKenney, D. J. Malloy, immediate past commander, D. J. MacDonald, Garnet Moore, George Cerny and Birtle Van Horn. From Post 584, those present were Commander Arthur Bigler and Harvey Fout, past county commander..

Mr. MacDonald, district historian, gave a report on the progress made in the district histories program. Mr. Fout, chairman of the district post activities committee, also gave a report.

GI Post was presented several membership awards, including a distinguished service citation, a plaque and a streamer for the post colors. Speaker for the conference was the department second vice commander. An announcement was made of the district convention to be held June 2 at Mount Vernon.

Ohio Airman Missing

190 Applicants Pass Exam as Ohio Attorneys

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court today announced 190 applicants, including a state representative, passed Feb. 7-9 bar examinations to qualify as attorneys.

Rep. John J. Conners (R-Lucas) was the successful legislator.

Second high was William K. Jones of Cleveland, with 87.6.

They will be sworn in Columbus at 2 p.m., March 27; Cincinnati at 11 a.m., March 28 and Cleveland at 11 a.m., March 29.

Penn-Texas Predicts It Will Get Firm's Control

NEW YORK (AP) — The head of Penn-Texas Corp. says his firm will win control of Fairbanks, Morse & Co. at the annual stockholders meeting next week.

"We firmly believe we will elect a majority of directors and so take over the Fairbanks, Morse management," said Leopold D. Silberstein.

Penn-Texas is locked in a proxy battle to take control of Fairbanks, Morse from the present management headed by Robert H. Morse Jr. The stockholders meeting will be held in Chicago March 27.

House Okays Hike In Rates on Bonds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a bill to give the Treasury flexible authority to increase the interest rate on government savings bonds from the present 3 per cent to as much as 3½ per cent.

The Treasury has indicated that at present it contemplates boosting the rate to 3½ per cent.

Under the plan, Series E bonds would mature in 8 years and 11 months instead of the present 9 years and 8 months.

Would Trim Columns

NEW YORK (AP)—A subcommittee of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., including G. Gordon Strong of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc., Canton, O., has recommended the standard width of newspaper columns be reduced by one-twelfth of an inch.

Robert Cope of near Marion is assistant state net control director for the Military Affiliate Radio System whose members convened here Sunday. His name was listed incorrectly in an article in The Star Monday.

Slide Rule 'Bee' Held To Stimulate Students' Interest

CHICAGO (AP) — A group of engineers have devised a slide rule competition for youngsters. They hope it will "make mathematics as popular as sports."

The first of a series of planned "slide bees" was held Monday in suburban Wheaton High School. Seven-member teams from seven high schools competed, each armed with a slide rule.

The contest was run off like a spelling bee, with contestants given mathematical problems and those answering them fastest piling up points toward the championship.

"How soon will the Russians overtake our supply of engineers, if they turn out 81,000 engineers every year to our 28,000 engineers? Assume that we now have 642,000 engineers, against 396,000 engineers in Russia, and that deaths and retirements are disregarded."

The answer to this was 4 years and 7 months.

Ashley Woman Suffers Hand Injury in Mangle

ASHLEY — Rev. Martha Haupt was injured at her home in Ashley Friday when her left hand became entangled with a garment which she was ironing on the mangle. The hand was drawn through with the cloth and was so firmly wedged in that it was necessary for Mr. Haupt to tear off the back of the ironer, to release her.

At a local doctor's office, it was found that the hand was burst in five places. The hand was flattened to the wrist and was placed in a sling following treatment.

Tennessee Minister Conducting Revival

Revival services in progress at the Church of Christ in Christian Union are being conducted by Rev. Lucian Smith of Memphis, Tenn. He is general superintendent of the Eastern Division, Evangelical Methodist Church. Services which started Monday night include special singing by various groups. Wednesday night a trio from the Circleville Bible College will furnish the music. Time of the services each night is 7:30, the pastor, Rev. Melvin Truex, announced.

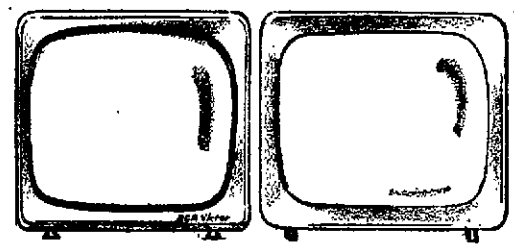
WHICH PORTABLE HAS THE "GUTS"?



Judge for yourself—actual photograph! RCA Victor 14" portable (left) is a solid, one-piece unit when removed from its cabinet and does not depend upon its cabinet for support of operating parts. With power transformer and long-life components, RCA Victor portables are engineered to outperform others and give years of trouble-free performance. Well-known Brand X (right), typical of most other portables, falls in pieces when removed from case. If case is damaged, portable might require a major service job. No power transformer—tubes strung in series like Christmas tree lights—if one goes, they all go out! Picture tube's glass neck protrudes out of rear of cabinet when chassis is in place. Movement of portables requires sturdy construction or picture deteriorates and service costs increase.

Portables look alike—until you remove the case!

Winchell Goes To Work for Desilu

Officially out of broadcasting for the first time in more years than he'd like to remember, newshawk Walter Winchell denies he's singing a torch song. Relieved of the radio deadline on Mutual this month and, before that, the much more pressing matters of live TV, Winchell claims he's discovered soothing balm in once-elusive sleep and peace of mind.

MARIE TORRE

"I was throwing a punch at somebody every night," says Winchell of those recent tension-filled days when he was an NBC star. "I saw a girl slip on the street one day and just because the guy next to her didn't help her, I punched him. Well, I'm not looking for trouble anymore. I'm not edgy anymore. I've calmed down."

LIKE MANY A MOVIE star, he's reporting each morning to the TV studio at Desilu Productions, where cameras are rolling on the pilot film of "Walter Winchell File," first of a weekly series of melodramas based on his wanderings along the Main Stem, much of it cops 'n' robbers stuff. Besides narrating each installment, Winchell will play himself in some of the dramas.

"I love it," said Winchell on the long-distance phone. "For the first time, I'll own something. Desi Arnaz is letting me keep 50 per cent of the show, which is a lot more than he gives to anybody else."

Although he talks at length about the joy of freedom from the exigencies of TV and radio, the feeling, by his own admission, is only temporary. He's open both to radio and television proposals, about offers to appear as guest in future NBC spectaculars — at least, that's what his agent at the William Morris Agency has told him.

But all future broadcasting activity, of course, will have to fit into his TV film schedule at Desilu, for which he has no small regard.

"Desi is great to work with," said Winchell, never half-hearted about anything or anyone. "I look around at this multi-million dollar company he's built up and I keep thinking that I gave him his first plug as recently as 1948, or around that time, when he was playing the bongo drums. And in a second-rate nightclub, at that!"

AFTER WEEKS of negotiating for a Gary Cooper filmed series, ABC officials have decided to "talk" no more. "We're convinced," says a network spokesman, "the series will not be ready by fall." . . . . The TV noose hangs heavily over "Jane Wyman Theater." Its sponsor has asked to be let out, effective June 25. . . . Another actor who wants to test his singing abilities is Jack Palance, who'll unveil his vocal talent on the "Perry Como Show" April 7. Palance says he's serious about singing. To show the extent of his determination, he's hired a vocal coach.

Comedian Jonathan Winters, who had expected to be removed from his weekly NBC Tuesday night spot around this time, has won a reprieve through June. . . . Night and day TV has proved too much for Tennessee Ernie Ford. Come June, he'll conclude his afternoon series, concentrate on his weekly nighttime NBC show and have — he hopes — a little time left for his family.

MOST VOCIFEROUS of the anti-television Hollywood kings appears to be James Cagney, who keeps rejecting TV offers just as swiftly as they come to him, including one from "Producers' Showcase" to play George M. Cohan. (Mickey Rooney will portray Cohan in May on NBC.) Cagney gave TV a whirl just once, on a Robert Montgomery show, and the memories prompt him to describe TV as "a killer." "Only reason I did the Montgomery show," says Cagney, "was that back in 1950 Bob asked me to appear on his program. I told him no, but then he asked me to promise that if I ever did TV the first one would be for him. So they finally sent me a script and I liked it."

Even the less pressurized work of filmed TV fails to intrigue him. "You're on that screen every week and the public is going to get sick of you," Cagney remarked. "Look at the turnover in TV stars every year. I feel as long as you do one or two movies a year, you're not in that danger, and that's enough work anyway, parcularly considering the tax situation."

(Copyright N. Y. Herald-Tribune)

EVEN THE JUDGE WAS CONFOUNDED. "This must be a record—21 marriages between two people," said Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle in Los Angeles. He was talking about Mrs. Beverly Avery, 46, (left) with her 14th husband, Gabriel Avery, 46, and Raymond J. O'Malley, (right), 41, her 13th husband who has been married seven times. Mrs. Avery hailed O'Malley into court seeking $233 in pre-divorce allmony which O'Malley promised to pay.

Pilot To Make His 25th Flight Across N. Atlantic Ocean

WASHINGTON (AP)—Max Conrad, king of the small-plane pilots, said today he will attempt his 25th light-plane solo crossing of the North Atlantic next weekend.

At the same time the 54-year-old Conrad disclosed plans to fly a World War II P38 fighter to Spain, and afterward to attempt the first light-plane flight from San Francisco to Hawaii.

Conrad, who has flown more small planes across greater reaches of open water than any other man, said he is calling his forthcoming flight to Paris "my silver anniversary trip."

"On the first four or five flights things went wrong and I had troubles," Conrad said. His first was in September 1950.

"Since then I have given each new plane a 20-hour shakedown in the U.S. before setting out, and have had no difficulty."

Alleged Gouging in Financing Of Automobiles Under Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Better Business Bureau official said today the laws of many states permit what he called gouging by finance sharks through high interest rates to auto buyers.

John L. O'Brien of Akron, Ohio, in testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee on automotive marketing practices, said what he called excessive interest and other auto finance gouges are permitted under the law in all but 15 states.

Cites Gouging Reports

Noting at the beginning that he is not criticizing the "thousands of reputable automobile dealers and financial institutions," O'Brien said that nonetheless he has reports of car finance gouging in 45 U. S. cities. He did not name the cities.

O'Brien listed these contract "packing" practices as outstanding among dishonest car dealers and finance companies, as described by Better Business Bureaus in the reporting cities:

Getting customers to sign blank contracts—with details, unfavorable to the customers, filled in later. This, he said, is the "No. 1 problem" in the country.

"No down payment" advertising—"almost invariably untrue," he said.

States Give Protection

O'Brien listed the following 15 states where he said laws give some protection—but by no means complete—to individuals buying cars on installment payments:

California, Colorado, Connecticut, Indiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah, Wisconsin, and the District of Columbia.

BPW Club To Meet

Roll call to be answered by each member providing a toy or a game for children at the Magnetic Springs Polio Foundation will be featured at a meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club Wednesday night. Included will be a potluck dinner at the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. home service rooms at 6:30 followed by business session. This is a combined dinner and business meeting because of canceling of the regular dinner meeting which was scheduled for Ash Wednesday.

President Theodore Roosevelt was an ardent advocate of simplified spelling. He ordered the government printer to shorten spelling of more than 300 words in all legislative publications.

Presser Renamed Head of Teamster Council for Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Joint Teamsters Council 41, with delegates from 46 teamsters unions in northeastern Ohio, Monday night unanimously re-elected William Presser. A short time before he resigned because of "newspaper attacks."

Presser, whose term expires in December, surprised a monthly dinner meeting attended by 253 delegates when he suddenly turned the meeting over to Vice President Louis Triscaro, declaring, "I'm quitting."

When several delegates protested, he said, "Yes, I'm quitting unless I get a complete vote of confidence from the delegates here. And I don't mean a majority."

Then he left the room and shortly thereafter was re-elected to a five-year term. He has been president since 1952.

Presser, who also heads Cab Drivers Local 555, spoke of "newspaper innuendo" but did not mention any attack specifically.

Triscaro recently removed himself from the payroll of the health and welfare organization of Excavating and Building Materials Drivers Local 436, which he heads. That activity had been attacked by newspapers here.

Milk Price Climbs

WASHINGTON (AP)— Prices of milk continue to climb.

An Agriculture Department report today showed the retail price averaged 24.6 cents a quart delivered to homes in 25 principal cities in early March. That was 1.2 cents above the average a year ago.

Big Bond Issue Slated

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland City Council Monday night passed a $17,250,000 capital improvement program to be financed by bond issue. When issued, the bonds will bring the city's debt to a new high of 123 million dollars.

CORRECTION

Mr. Verne Hart of Farm & City Insurance, will be observing one year as owner of the agency on April 2, instead of March 19, as was stated in last night's paper.

Coffee and cake will be served at the agency at that time.

Prexy Track and Field Hopefuls Speed Up Drills

Win String of 53, District Crown Will Be Protected

Hopes for another top track season at Harding High School rest with 105 athletes who this week step up their training pace after two weeks of working out the kinks.

Thirteen track veterans and nine lettermen from last fall's cross country team form the nucleus of this year's track and field group. The charges of Coach Ken Somerlot are faced with the task of maintaining a terrific record at the local school.

A dual meet string of 53 straight victories plus the Buckeye Conference title, the Mansfield District title and the Harding Night relays crown must be protected by this year's Prexy runners.

Three co-captains were selected by the squad. Named to lead the Prexies were Bruce Roberts, Greg Hochstetter and Bill Hull.

SOMERLOT AND Gordon Larson, assistant track coach, are seeking replacements for several top flight performers gone from last year's district champions. Graduation robbed the Prexy crew of such stalwarts as Gary Huber, Ted Firstenberger, Dan Fosnaugh, Lewis Butler, Carl Burns, Dave Lockwood, John Arthur and Ben Dozier. Also unavailable due to Ohio's new age limit of 19 are Eli Green and Dick Hastings.

Only casualty among the five returning letter winners has been Bob Lister, a junior. He underwent a knee operation recently and is expected to be out of athletics for the balance of the year.

Somerlot expects his squad to speed up the pace of its progress this month. "Definitely with the track rolled and the addition of blacktop runways and circles, the squad can make finer headway during the month of March," he said.

"One fine thing about the squad this year is the abundance of good sophomore talent that should help Harding in future seasons," the Prexy mentor went on.

HOWEVER, SOME juggling will be done to give the Prexy squad added strength in some events, the coaches have decided.

The Prexies appear to be especially wealthy in the field events.

Three lettermen are available in the high jump. Bruce Roberts has cleared six feet while Joe Patrick is back with a 5-9 effort and Larry Shingler has turned in a 5-7 try. Others competing in that event and their top marks include Jim Beverly, 5-7, Charles Campbell, 5-5 and Pete Sykes, 5-5.

Veteran Greg Hochstetter leads the pole vault hopefuls. He has reached the 12-foot mark and is expected to go higher. Other vaulters include Larry Ballinger, Dave Howison, Stan Larkin and Jack Rankin.

Three lettermen, all with 20-foot leaps to their credit, are back in the broad jump event. These include Shingler, Bill Dozier and Bill Smith. Also competing will be Dick Pickens with a 19-foot leap, and John Lawson and Dave Maugans, two sophomores with 19-foot efforts.

Glen Dickason and Dick Russell, both lettermen, are standouts in the shot put. Dickason has recorded a 49-foot throw and Russell has been measured at 47 feet. Added help will come from Sophomore Bob Middleton, who has heaved the shot 45 feet, and from Junior Vaughn Williams, also around the 45-foot mark. Other top prospects, according to Somerlot, are Garrison McGinnis, Mike Chamberlain and Larry Eblin.

WILLIAMS, WITH a 140-foot toss, is the top discus performer. Dickason has heaved the disk 135 feet and Russell has a 125-foot throw to his credit. Other good prospects are Dick Fleming and Everett Shaffstall, juniors, and Middleton and Chamberlain, sophomores.

Four lettermen plus a good supply of prospects are available in the dashes. Handling the chores in the 100, 220 and 440 events will be Larry Henry, Roberts, Bill Dozier and Jerry Peifer, all lettermen, and Dick Pickens, Don Luke, Warren Hall and Larry Walters, seniors; Lester Prude, Earl George and Danny Davis, juniors, and Lawson, Jim Jones and Ted Jolliff, sophomores.

Roberts, Shingler, Larry Gamble, Allen Keller, Campbell, Jolliff and Jim Beverly, currently are working out in the high hurdle events while Smith, Lawson, Allen Keller, Walters and Joliff are working to handle the lows.

Two All - Ohio cross country stars are leading the distance runners. They are Bill Hull, a senior who last year turned in a 4:41 mile and a 2:04 half mile, and Joe Fazara, a junior who has been clocked at 2:05 for the half mile. Other top distance men are Gene Brake, Stan Haas, Neal Williams, Frank Castanien, Dick Burklew, Ron Dickason, Jim Fate, Butch Gorrell, Ron McQuery and Gary Retterer.

SOMERLOT already has started work on the annual Harding Night Relays scheduled for May 3. "We are hoping we can get 2,000 fans out for the greatest show we have ever presented," he said. New schools in this year's meet will include Mansfield, Cleveland Cathedral Latin, Columbus West and Sandusky.

Harding's dual meet season will open April 9 at Worthington. Other meets are: April 16, Mount Vernon; April 30, Ashland, and May 7, at Sandusky. Night meets facing the Prexies include the Marion, Findlay and Fremont triangular meet, April 24 at Findlay; the Night relays on May 3 and the Buckeye Conference meet at Findlay on May 10. Saturday action will see the Prexies in the Springfield Relays, April 13, the Mansfield Relays, April 19 and 20; the Ohio Wesleyan Relays, April 27; the District meet, May 18 and the state meet, May 24 and 25.

Reserve meets are slated April 10 with Mount Gilead, April 17 with Prospect, April 23 with Richwood and May 8 with Nevada.

Hoak Given Edge in Bid With Reds

By The Associated Press

Don Hoak, who played off and on at third base for two years with the Brooklyn Dodgers and for 121 games with the Chicago Cubs last year, seemed a good bet today to land the hot corner job this season with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts has been using Alex Grammas, who also performs at third, at shortstop lately, and this could be half the Cincinnati infield lineup on opening day.

Sets Pace at Plate

Hoak, 29, batted in three runs Monday as the Redlegs defeated the Boston Red Sox 7-6 in 10 innings at Sarasota, Fla. With the bases loaded in the eighth, Hoak singled to drive in two runs and tie the score at 5-5. Then in the 10th after Jerry Lynch's pinch hit triple and a walk to Johnny Temple, Hoak singled again. Another score came home on an infield out.

Sunday, Hoak got 3-for-3 against the New York Yankees.

Last fall Hoak, pitcher Warren Hacker and outfielder Pete Whisenant were swapped by Chicago to Cincinnati for third baseman Ray Jablonski and pitcher Elmer Singleton.

A three-bagger in the 10th inning by Mike Baxes scored Johnny Groth and produced a 4-3 victory for the Kansas City Athletics over the Pittsburgh Pirates at West Palm Beach, Fla. Dale Long and Bill Virdon homered for the Pirates.

Kuenn Boots Two

Detroit shortstop Harvey Kuenn made three errors and the Brooklyn Dodgers scored seven unearned runs in the first two innings to defeat the Tigers 8-1 in a night game at Miami. Don Newcombe, making his first appearance since the Dodgers visited Japan last fall, allowed two hits in two innings and was credited with the victory.

At Bradenton, Fla., Andy Pafko belted a three-run homer in the eighth inning, his second of the spring, to break a 3-all tie as the Milwaukee Braves took a 7-3 verdict from the St. Louis Cardinals.

Whitey Ford and Art Ditmar of the Yankees, combined their mound talents to shut out the Philadelphia Phillies 5-0 on three hits.

Frick Mapping Fight Strategy

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., (AP)—Faced with a congressional drive to bring professional baseball under federal anti-trust laws, major league executives today were hastily mapping strategy to present to Commissioner Ford Frick at a meeting Friday.

The conclave will take place at Ballair, and it will mark the first time baseball bigwigs have taken official note of the pending Congressional action.

"The purpose of the meeting is to compile data and information and determine policy in connection with bills now pending in Congress," Frick said in a brief statement. He declined to elaborate.

The conclave will be in strict secrecy and no announcement probably will be forthcoming, it was indicated. That the situation is regarded as desperate there can be no doubt.

Until the new bills were introduced, Frick and baseball in general took a hands off policy concerning the Supreme Court's ruling which placed professional football under anti-trust laws on Feb. 25. Frick declined even to comment on the case, pointing out that it had no bearing on baseball.

But insiders say that there has been some frantic scurrying around in the inner circle since the ruling, implying that top baseball brass knew they would come under scrutiny shortly.

New Leaders Take Top Spots In Local Bowling Tournament

With the second week of activity well under way in the annual men's Marion City Bowling Tournament, new standings have been posted in team, singles and doubles competition.

As of now, Red Top Beer still paces the tourney's team activity, with a 2979-pin score. CIO I is in second place with a 2945 total, while Indians are in third by virtue of a 2927 tally. The Henry Boat entry holds down fourth place with a 2920, while Standard Oil is in the fifth high spot on the strength of a 2917-pin total.

The action in singles competition is presently being led by Robert Winnert, with a 700-pin score. Jack Young is second high with a 691, while Herb Petrich is in third place with a 668 score. Ron Jerew still is in third on the basis of a 662 score but is tied for the position by Leon Ford.

In doubles competition, the following teams are leading the pack: Dick Detwiler, Richard Shirk, 1317; Gene Shenefield, Harry Yager, 1235; William Hoffman, William Bomberger, 1234; C. Lichty, W. Darnell, 1231; and Jack Young and Ralph Weber, 1222.

Georrge Barkley leads the scoring in high single game with a 274-pin total. Herb Petrich and George Jacob are tied for second place with a 265, and John Lockstead is in third place with a 256-pin tally.

A check on the total number of entries in this year's tourney reveals that 136 teams are entered in competition for the top prizes, according to Ed Cheney, secretary of the Marion Bowling Association. In addition, 175 doubles teams are in action, while no less than 322 individuals are rolling for single game high scores. Class A all-events activity has 79 participants, while 42 have entered the Class B all-events competition.

Harding High School Students To Hold Intramural Program

Thursday is Intramural Night at Harding High School. Three basketball games will be played beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The first game will be played by two teams from the Girls Athletic Association selected by Miss Margaret Craig. The second puts the Junior Class boys intramural champion against the Senior Class intramural champion. The final is an "All-Star" game of Juniors, against Seniors. The "all-Stars" were selected by captains of the junior and senior intramural teams.

Admission is 25 cents for all fares. Tickets will be sold at the door. Proceeds are used to finance the intramural program. The boys intramural program began four years ago when adequate facilities were provided by the new high school. It was organized to provide participation for those boys who are not on varisty athletic teams. Every boy is urged to participate.

A home room representative is elected for intramurals at the beginning of each school year. His duties are to keep the room informed of all intramural activities and to take registrations.

Touch football, basketball, tennis, and chess have been offered in the program. However, the basketball program has been the most popular. Next in popularity is football.

This year over 200 boys participated in the basketball program. Games were played on Monday and Thursday nights beginning at 6:30. Six games are played each session, two games being played at a time. This year over 170 games were played.

All officiating, scoring, timing, and tabulation of results is done by the students. William Cover, intramural supervisor, directs all activities and receives excellent cooperation from the students.

Teams are divided into three leagues according to grade level. The season began with a round robin which was completed in January. The season is climaxed by a double elimination tournament to select an intramural champion for each class.

Hacker To Help Redleg Pitching, Tebbetts Says

SARASOTA, Fla., (AP) —A gleeful Birdie Tebbetts said Monday his Cincinnati Redlegs will be stronger at the pitching this season — thanks mostly to the addition of Warren Hacker.

Tebbetts had just watched the 32-year-old righthander hold Boston's Red Sox to three singles during a four-inning stint of Cincinnati's 7-6 overtime exhibition win.

"I'm counting on Warren for 15 games, and I believe I'll get them from him," said Tebbetts of the Chicago Cub castoff.

Moore Waits Legal Ruling On Title Clash

NEW YORK (AP) — Ole Archie Moore weighed a couple of Canadian offers for title defenses as the perplexed International Boxing Club sought legal advice today on whether they could dicker for championship fights.

The 40-year-old light heavyweight champion had been given a March 18 deadline by the NBA to sign for a June title defense. So he came to town Monday ready to sign papers with the IBC for a Detroit bout with the winner of the Tony Anthony-Chuck Spieser 12-rounder April 5.

Archie's timing was OK but President James D. Norris of the IBC wouldn't see him because of the club's legal troubles.

"I'm going to consult my lawyers Tuesday to get a legal opinion," said Norris, "on what I can do without flouting Judge Ryan's decision. The lawyers may take several days to make their decision."

Judge Sylvester Ryan ruled March 8 that the IBC was guilty of monopolizing the promotion of world championship fights. He ordered both the government, which brought the anti - trust charges against the IBC, and the boxing club, to propose decrees within 30 days.

Because of the legal problems, both the NBA and the New York Athletic Commission, gave Archie a few days of grace on the signing ultimatum. The New York commission did not set any deadline for Moore but said it would go along with the NBA on the matter.

"It's too bad about the delay," said Moore's manager, Charlie Johnston. "Now that Norris is stymied temporarily, we'll look elsewhere. We've got two terrific offers from Canada — Toronto and Vancouver — for a title defense against Yolande Pompey (stopped by Moore in the 10th round in London, England, June 5, 1956). "We'll look into them and if anyone else has any offers we'll be glad to listen."

Greenberg, Tigers Talk

Score Worth $1 Million To Red Sox, Cronin Says

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians still had pitcher Herb Score today, while the Boston Red Sox kept their million dollars and Hank Greenberg headed for Lakeland, Fla., to talk trade with the Detroit Tigers.

Greenberg, Cleveland general manager, and Joe Cronin, ditto for the Red Sox, casually talked in million-dollar terms Monday.

Trade Discussed

"We had just a short talk, and it concerned the possibility of a trade," said Greenberg, when asked about Cronin's million-dollar offer for Score, Cleveland's 20-game winner.

"Cronin told me that what the Red Sox needed was a good, first-line pitcher and that Score would probably be worth a million dollars to the Red Sox.

"Then I said to him, 'You mean you'd really give a million dollars for Score?'

"Cronin said he would."

The Cleveland official advised Cronin he was out to build up the Indians, not tear them down.

Cronin, whose Red Sox, with the Indians, are the main contenders against the Yankees, confirmed he had made the offer for Score.

"We tried to make a deal with Cleveland and haven't been able to work anything out," he said.

Final Offer Made

"Finally I said to Greenberg, 'There's only one thing I can do. That is to offer you a million dollars for Herb Score. Take that back to your board of directors.'"

When it was suggested to Cronin that he might buy the whole Cleveland ball club for three million dollars, the Boston official said:

Score, 20-9 with the Indians in 1956, has led the American League in strikeouts in both his major league seasons. The 23-year-old lefty has whiffed 508 major leaguers in two years. He won 16 games his rookie year.

The Rosedale, N. Y. native was promoted to the Indians after 1954 when he won 22 and struck out 330 for Indianapolis of the AAA American Assn.

Farrell Seeking New Field Leader

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Manager Kerby Farrell says he is generally pleased with the progress the Cleveland Indians have made in a month of training, but they are not aggressive enough in the field.

"I look around the infield," he said, "and I never hear anyone say anything. They all seem to be alert, but I wish we had someone out there to make sure they keep on their toes."

Farrell said the team needed "someone like Eddie Stanky when he was playing, or a Billy Martin, of an Alvin Dark. Someone to direct the team in the field and keep it alive on the bench."

The Tribe manager said he had a player in mind who might be able to take charge in the field, but did not want to say who it was until he had talked to him.

Stanley Dancer, 29, of New Egypt, N. J., finished third among the nation's harness drivers for the second straight year in 1956.

Nationals Clip Warriors in NBA Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The Syracuse Nationals hurdled the opening round of the eastern division playoffs in the National Basketball Assn., and the Minneapolis Lakers will attempt to eliminate the Pistons in a western division series tonight at Fort Wayne.

With Philadelphia Warrior ace Paul Arizin benched because of a thigh injury, the Nationals made it two straight in the best-of-three series Monday night at Syracuse, winning 91-80. Arizin, the league's top scorer, played three minutes at the start.

This qualified Syracuse for the best-of-five eastern finals against the Boston Celtics opening in Boston Thursday night. The teams meet again Saturday at Syracuse in a nationally televised game.

Minneapolis, a 131-127 winner Sunday night, can clinch the best-of-three western series by winning tonight. If a third game is necessary it will be played Wednesday at Minneapolis.

350 Attend Annual Event

Irish Athletes Honored At St. Patrick's Banquet

By ALLAN BOVEY

Approximately 350 persons were present Monday night at the annual St. Mary High School St. Patrick Day dinner-dance in the Harding Hotel. The event honored all members of the Irish football and basketball squads this year.

Edward Neidig served as toastmaster and introduced the guests, including Rev. William J. Spickerman, pastor of St. Mary Church; Ray Robbins, head football and basketball coach, and Max Ross, assistant coach. In addition, Mr. Neidig recognized several individuals without whose services he said "athletics would not be as successful at St. Mary as they are."

Included among this group were Joe Ledford, who is in charge of the Gra-Y teams; Ed Burt, scorekeeper at Irish games; Lewis Myers, timekeeper; Art O'Keefe, St. Mary finance manager; and Floyd Cornely, business manager. Mr. Cornely paid tribute to those men "behind the scenes who always do such a great job in rounding up the money necessary to have sports here at St. Mary."

A SPECIAL recognition was given Charles Morbitt, who takes the photographs of St. Mary football plays at each game. Mr. Robbins noted that the quality of the pictures taken have been excellent and that college coaches have remarked on their clarity and all-around excellence for study purposes.

Following a talk on the significance of St. Patrick's Day by Rev. Spickerman, varsity letters and awards were presented to 20 varsity football players and 11 varsity basketballers. In making the awards, Coach Robbins declared that St. Mary grid and cage teams had had "a successful season." He pointed out that while the football team had won six games and lost three, those three defeats came in the first four games, and were by a total of only eight points.

In basketball the season's record was 12-8. Robbins noted, however, that two players, Joe Ledford and Bill Robbins, had been lost to the team, Ledford for almost the entire season, Robbins from the sixth game on. "Had we continued to have the services of those boys, things might have been much different with regard to our final lost column," he declared.

The Irish mentor paid special tribute to Jon Smith, who is, he suggested, "the best all-around athlete that has ever attended St. Mary school." Robbins said Smith had been an all-Mid Ohio Conference choice in both football and basketball two years in a row and had, in his opinion, "a brilliant future ahead of him in sports." Roger McCombs was also recognized as having been chosen on the all-conference first-string football team and the second five in basketball this year. Pete Wade made the conference's second teams in the two sports.

"WHEN WE PLAY Class AA schools like Kenton and Willard, plus several other schools with enrollments much larger than our own, and still come out on the long end of the win column, we feel we've had a successful season," Robbins said. It was announced that next year's schedule in football will include Scioto Valley instead of arch-rival Carey. Scioto Valley is a new member of the Mid Ohio Conference. In addition, St. Mary will play an 18-game basketball schedule, compared with 17 games this year. Added to the schedule will be Morral. Delaware will replace Claridon as an Irish opponent.

Varsity basketball awards were given Larry Kelly, Ledford, McCombs, Robbins, Smith, Gene Wurm, Dave Kelly, T. Moloney, Dan Shoemaker, Steve Smith and Wade. Smith and McCombs co-captained the Irish hardcourt crew.

Following the awarding of varsity letters and certificates, Max Ross, assistant coach, made presentations to the following reserve Irish players in football: Dennis Blue, Ray Herneise, Joe Krigbaum, Mike Nicolosi, Ricard Stephenson, Art Tyde, John Kelleher, Steve Myers, Connie Tramontana, Harry Traugh and Dennis Ring.

Ross noted that his reserve squad had son seven games while dropping a single contest to a fine Mount Gilead team. He suggested that such a record was an indication of things to come next year for the Irish varsity.

In basketball, Ross injected a note of humor into the proceedings by declaring that "this year we built character." The Irish reserves won only three games against some tough competition. Reserve hardcourt certificates were given to Hank Krigbaum, Murray Lavender, Bill Ring, Ted Anderson, Dennis Blue, Joe Krigbaum, Mike Nicolosi, Bob Dendinger, Dennis Dickerson.

Awards for mangers went to Terry Flynn, Steve Smith, Joe Cochran and Al Peacock for football. Basketball managers included Terry Flynn, Ray Herneise and Al Peacock. Mr. Robbins also presented awards to the Irish cheerleaders, including Susie Gunder, Patsy Norris, Patty Bintz, Penny Powers, Kay Dunn and Carol McCombs.

The highlight of the night's activities was the dance. Music, in the ballroom of the hotel, was by the Billy Johnson orchestra.

Prep Tourney Slated by 'Y' For Grapplers

The second annual Marion YMCA prep wrestling tournament has been slated for Saturday, March 30 at 10 a.m. This tournament, which was a great success last year, will be open to boys 8 to 11 years of age. Previous experience in the sport is not necessary.

Gym classes at that age level at the local "Y" will begin teaching the sport to those who express interest in participating in the program, Coach Dean Ludwig said. Each boy will wrestle against boys his own weight in the tournament with special weight groups being picked by the "Y" staff to insure every boy a fair match.

Tournament day will consist of a weighin at 10 a.m., to ascertain every boy's weight and put him in the proper weight group. Weights this year will be 67 pounds, 75 pounds, 80 pounds, 85 pounds, 90 pounds. 97 pounds, 107 pounds and unlimited for boys over 107 pounds. No holds or moves which could possibly cause injury to the participant are allowed and the whole tourney is a wholesome recreational experience, Ludwig added.

Awards will be given to the best wrestler in the tournament and the best sportsman, along with medals for the boys who win their individual weight group championships. Last year's tournament was one of the most exciting and enjoyable programs ever offered by the local YMCA, the coach said. Neal Hall captured last year's best wrestler award and Earnest Robinson took the best sportsman award. Individual champions in their weight groups were: John Howard, 67 pounds; Howard Jones 75 pounds; Jim Webb, 80 pounds; Erving Conley, 85 pounds; Orison Firstenberger, 97 pounds; Neal Hall, 107 pounds; and Larry Scheff, unlimited.

Boys interested in participating in this year's tourney are urged to be on hand at all gym classes to fill out registration forms and to learn the basic fundamentals of the sport.

"We often feel sorry for the boy whose parents will not let him wrestle for fear he may get hurt. We had no one hurt last year and an injury is an exception in collegiate wrestling. We feel that this is good for the boy and that every boy should have an opportunity to compete," Ludwig concluded.

Senators Seek Trades With Yanks, Cleveland

ORLANDO, Fla., (AP) — The Washington Senators, with chances of getting Minnie Minoso from the Chicago White Sox all but gone, peered hopefully today at the New York Yankee and Cleveland Indian rosters.

Senators President Calvin Griffith said he hopes to get together with general manager George Weiss of the Yankees and Hank Greenberg of Cleveland shortly. An apparent near-deal for Minoso was knocked down by the White Sox Monday.

'Y' Swimmers Pace Field in AAU Matches

Marion YMCA swimmers under the direction of Coach Warren Foster again showed their class in national competition with 10 top places in AAU meets at Toledo, Akron, and Kent over the weekend.

Swimming at Akron University Saturday in the Lake Erie AAU championships the team established two new team records. Joe Cochran, high school sophomore, lowered his team mark in the century butterfly from 1:11.5 to a fast 1:09.7 to finish third against a strong field. In the boys 13 to 14 medley relay, the team of Tom Sampley, Alan McKee, Tom Prichard and Bruce Kohler twice broke the team record as it splashed to a final time of 2:10, good for second place awards. Biggest surprise was the first place finish of the medley relay team in the 15 and 17 year bracket as it won in 2:04. The winning quartet included Ed Cooper, Dennis Ruppart, Joe Cochran and Tom Prichard.

On Sunday, action moved to Kent State University's pool and the Marion team stepped up its pace. The defending champion, Alan McKee, again won the breaststroke for boys 14 and under, setting a new AAU district and team record of 1:15.3 as the distance was increased to 100 yards this year. McKee's time also topped the winner in the next age bracket. Thirteen-year-old Bruce Kohler added a fifth place in the breaststroke giving Marion a chance to repeat next year.

Freestyle ace Tom Prichard won his specialty, the 200 yard freestyle, going away in a very good 2:16.8 for a new junior team record. Teammate Alan McKee also qualified but dropped to sixth in the finals. Prichard previously was the Lake Erie 50 yard freestyle titlist.

The Marion team missed a chance for another first in the 200 yard freestyle relay when it finished in front with a good 1:46.8 timing only to be disqualified because a swimmer left the mark inches before his teammate's hand touched. Swimming were Tom Prichard, Dan Sampley, Steve Sulser and Joe Cochran.

Diving coach Pete Ayers' charges took over at Toledo with Bob Rhoads and Dick White, both sophomores, finishing two-four in the diving events for boys 16 years and under. Junior diver Bob Finney suffered his first loss by 18 points as he took second behind Dayton's Dick Flynn. Teammate Jeff Cochran took a very close sixth place, raising Marion hopes at Columbus next weekend in the area championships.

Midget star Tom Shambaugh picked up two awards as he broke teammate Joe Peacock's record in the 50 yard freestyle to win easily in 33.2 seconds. Peacock's mark was 34.8. Shambaugh was second in the 25 yard sprint when he was just touched out after leading most of the way.

Leonette White of Marion's new girls' team finished seventh in the 50 yard freestyle for girls 14 and under for the top effort by a local girl. Janet McMahon, Marianne Albert and Judy Evans also represented the local team.

Bob White took sixth place in the 100 yard individual medley for preps with a good 1:27.4 timing. All of the Marion swimmers and divers at Toledo with the exception of Shambaugh will have another year in their age groups. Over 410 took part at Toledo representing all Midwest states and Canada while the Akron AAU meets drew over 350 swimmers both days.

BOB FELLER
Retired Hill Ace To Speak

Feller To Address Athletic Dinner at Caledonia April 24

Bob Feller, retired pitching ace of the Cleveland Indians, will be speaker April 24 at the annual Caledonia High School athletic banquet.

The banquet, sponsored by the Caledonia Lions Club, is scheduled for the school cafeteria at 6:45 p.m. The banquet is being staged to honor members of the Caledonia High School basketball squad and the county junior high school championship quintet. George Hamric, Caledonia coach, will present athletic awards.

Tickets for the event may be purchased from any member of the Caledonia Lions Club or at the school office. Admission will be $2.50. John G. Clark, Lions Club program chairman, is in charge of arrangements for Feller's visit.

It will mark the first public address by Feller after the opening game of the 1957 baseball campaign. This will mark Feller's first season on the sidelines after 20 years in the uniform of the Cleveland Indians. The former fast ball king of the major leagues retired after last season for a private business position.

Milwaukee Is Charged With Bonus Violation

BRADENTON, Fla., (AP) —Frank Lane, general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, said Monday, "Juan Pizarro, the Braves' young lefthander, should be a bonus player."

Lane was quoted by Lou Chapman of the Milwaukee Sentinel, as saying "the rule specifically states that any player receiving in excess of $4,000 for signing with a major league club is classified as a bonus player."

The Braves bought the talented young hurler's contract from Pedro Zarrilla, owner of the baseball team at Santurce, Puerto Rico.

"The Braves paid Pizarro $4,000," said Lane, "and Pedro Zarrilla has twice gone on record as saying that he also got $40,000 from Milwaukee and turned the money over to the young Puerto Rican."

Crestline Ace Wins All-Ohio Cage Ranking

BY FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—From the crossroads and the villages come the kids named today to The Associated Press Class A high school All-Ohio basketball team.

Sports editors, coaches and officials did the voting. The stars were weeded from 696 squads and some 14,000 players. Seventy-four, from all sectors of the state, were named to the all-star squad.

Most Teams Ousted

Selections were made on the basis of games through the county tournaments, so only a few of the talented 74 are still on hand for the Friday-Saturday state championship games.

Zane Deeds of Gratis was named to the second team, and each of the four finalist schools had a player among the 59 "honorable mentions," but the other 68 on the squad fell with their teams somewhere along the tournament trail. Announcement of the all-star team was held up until state tournament week at the request of the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Assn.

This year's team has no giants among the first five, but it has one of the old-time fireball little men in Bob Filiere of Troy-Luckey. He stands 5 feet 7 and weighs 130. Son of Coach Doyce Filiere of Troy-Luckey, he was the kid who kept his dad's quintet at the top of The Associated Press ratings most of the year.

Two Reach 6-3 Mark

The tall ones are Jim Opperman of New Bremen and Ron Stephenson of New Boston, each 6 feet 3. Walter Harrop, Shawnee's prolific scorer, is 6 feet 2½, and Larry Simmermacher of Crestline, at 6 feet 1½, rounds out the All-Ohio quintet.

With Leeds, the state tournament players on the All - Ohio squad include "honorable mentions" Ed Bode of Bethel, Mary Hohenberger and Jim Martin of Ayersville, Dick Leggett of Midvale (whose last-second field goals won both regional games for his club) and Gerald McCloud of Gratis.

The selections:

Doyt Perry To Address Forest Athletic Banquet

FOREST — Doyt Perry, head football coach at Bowling Green State University, will be the speaker at the annual athletic banquet Friday, March 29, at the Forest High School gymnasium. Football and basketball awards will be presented to players. Tickets will be on sale at $1.25.

Wednesday will mark the start of preliminaries in 1957 inter-class tournament at Forest High School. The freshmen will battle the sophomores and juniors the seniors in both girls and boys brackets. Finals will be played Thursday starting at 7 p.m. Games are open to the public. Tickets are sold at 25 cents. A dance will follow sponsored by the Student Council.

Haynes-Tatum Combine Duels Spivey, Mates

Goose Tatum and Marques Haynes will make their initial appearance in the Marion Coliseum, as owners of their own team, the Harlem Magicians, Sunday night at 8.

Opposition will be furnished by big Bill Spivey and his Kentucky Colonels, one of the top traveling teams in the United States. Half-time entertainment will be in the hands of the "Flying Neshits" of Washington, D. C., an acrobatic act which won the Paul Whiteman award as the outstanding act of its kind in the nation, three consecutive years.

When Tatum and Haynes quit the Harlem Globetrotters to form their own team they signed five of the leading players of the Globe Trotters. In addition to the owners, Josh Grider, All-American from Tennessee State, Boyd Buie, the one-armed wizard, and Tommy Gibson, another Tennessee Stater, came from the Globetrotters. Then Haynes and Tatum went out and signed two of the big name players of the NBA. Both were former All-Americans at Duquesne University. Jim Tucker, 6-10 of Paris, Ky., played last season with the Syracuse Nationals. Charlie Cooper, a fancy ball handler, was with Fort Wayne Zollners last season, and with Boston Celtics the three previous year. The addition of Cooper and Tucker gives the Magicians a professional team capable of playing anyone in the country.

Spivey, 7-1 All-American from Kentucky University, won the Helms award in 1951. He is averaging 49 points a game which is two less than the fabulous Tatum. Other outstanding players with the Colonels are Don Malmrose, Brigham Young All - American, Charlie Hadden, another Wildcat star, and Van Phillips of El Dorado, Ark.

Tickets are on sale at Henney and Cooper Drug store and National City Bank.

Lopez Pleased at Job Turned in by Rookies

TAMPA, Fla., (AP) — The rookies and newcomers are taking the play away from the veterans in the Chicago White Sox training camp much to the joy of Manager Al Lopez.

The list includes outfielder Jim Landis, catcher Earl Battey, third baseman Bubba Phillips and pitcher Roger Howard, Bill Dufour and Jim Derrington.

"Phillips isn't exactly a rookie," said Lopez, "but he's new at third base and just 27. I won't say as yet that he's our No. 1 third baseman, but I'm definitely going to use him there in some of our early games."

All of the others, especially Landis, Battey and Howard, have looked exceptionally good an dall figure to stick with the team.

Dayton, Xavier Face Tests in NIT Tourney

NEW YORK (AP) — A couple of fired-up unseeded teams, St. Bonaventure and Memphis State, took the play away from Seattle University's highly touted Elgin (Rabbit) Baylor in the National Invitation basketball tourney Monday night.

Baylor was a disappointment in his first New York appearance as the Bonnies drubbed Seattle 85-68 after Memphis State had walloped Manhattan 85-73.

St. Bonaventure and Memphis State thus advanced to Thursday's semifinals. By the luck of the draw, they will oppose each other.

The round of four will be completed tonight when second-seeded Bradley meets Xavier of Ohio and Temple meets Dayton at Madison Square Garden.

The Bonnies overcame an early 10-4 Seattle lead and poured it on to shatter Seattle's 18-game winning streak. Memphis State did the same thing against Manhattan.

Baylor, a 6-6 high school star in Washington, D.C., before he entered Seattle, was downcast in the dressing room. He had fouled out after scoring 23 points but his floor work and passing were poor.

"I was tired," he said. "I couldn't seem to catch my breath. I don't know what was the matter."

Couple Leaves Movie Capital And Finds Success in Mexico

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ever feel like chucking the whole works and going off to live in a Mexican village?

Eileen Bassing and her husband Bob did. They left behind Hollywood careers to lead the simple life below the border. And the investment paid off. Out of it came her novel, "Home Before Dark," which they are now adapting for Warner Brothers. The studio paid $100,000 for it.

It's quite a switch for the Bassings, who at times were virtually penniless in Mexico.

Veteran of Studios

Eileen is an attractive Bostonian who doesn't look old enough to have sons of 18 and 21. She is a veteran of the studios, having worked as story analyst, technical advisor, etc. Bob Bassing was assistant story editor at Columbia Pictures.

"We both wanted to write," she remarked, "but we realized it was impossible to do so at home. We decided the only thing to do was to get away, and we thought we could live most cheaply in Mexico.

"So we sold all our belongings and left. All our friends said we were crazy, and maybe we were. But we had to try it."

They settled in the village of Ajijic, an idyllic community that had previously attracted writers D. H. Lawrence, John Dos Passos and Tennessee Williams. After a year, the Bassings found themselves broke.

But they weren't ready to admit defeat. They sent for their books and opened a lending library for the American and English residents and tourists.

Big Success

"It was an amazing success, even though most of our books were texts on psychiatry and philosophy," Mrs. Bassing said. "We were open only three hours a day, but out of the returns we supported our family a maid, a cook, a laundress and a gardener.

"We rented anything — even the New York Times, section by section, at 15 centavos per section. And those who borrowed the crossword puzzle had to promise to erase it when the page was returned."

Meanwhile, the Bassings wrote. He found success in short stories and she worked on a novel about a young woman's return to normal life after a mental breakdown.

"It's the first novel I have submitted," she explained, "but not the first I have written. I wrote three others—and then burned them. I also wrote a 400-page draft of 'Home Before Dark' and burned it, because it wasn't what I wanted it to be."

After three years in Mexico, the Bassings had to return because her doctor told her "I would have to leave or I would die."

Boy Bitten by Dog

James Childers, 13, of 226 Tully St. suffered a dog bite injury Monday afternoon as he ran through an alley near Taft Junior High School. He was bitten on the right leg above the left knee and was taken to Marion General Hospital for treatment. The police report indicated the dog was a stray.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market held within narrow price limits in the slowest trading in about five months early this afternoon.

Most price changes were limited to fractions with only a few exceptions.

Oils also were mostly fractionally higher but aircrafts eased. Motors, steels and chemicals were mixed.

The market showed little immediate response to a statement by William McChesney Martin, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, that there is no trend yet toward an easing of the money market.

U. S. government bonds staged a modest rally.

Crestline Raps Hike of Phone Rates in Area

CRESTLINE—City Council here Monday night went on record as opposing the proposed rate increase as sought by the Northern Ohio Telephone Co.

The action was taken after Mayor A. C. Smith reported on a meeting he had attended in Norwalk recently. He said the rate increase would amount to 37 per cent.

The mayor reported it would cost Crestline $533 to join with other cities served by the phone company in fighting the rate increase through legal channels. He said the city could raise the money if each subscriber would contribute 25 cents.

An ordinance was passed accepting the plat of Ersel Newcome subject to regulations of the village. Another ordinance was passed consenting to improvements of the County Line Rd. on Route 181 by the State Highway Department.

The improvements are to consist of a new bridge and new approaches.

Mayor Smith appointed Mrs. John Zwahlen as a member of the Kelly Park Board for a five-year period. The payroll of $1,183.06 was read and ordered paid.

Seneca Makes It Official

SENECA, Ill. (AP) — The City Council Monday night voted unanimously that Seneca is Seneca.

This settled legally a matter which has been the subject of some confusion for 103 years.

The LaSalle County town was founded as Crotty in 1854, but it gradually became known as Seneca and the post office directory and other publications have carried it that way for years.

Annual Meeting Planned by Rural Co-Operative Unit

Annual meeting of members of the Marion Rural Electric Cooperative, Inc., will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Morral School, Frank Clay, president, announced today.

Directors will be elected from Districts 2 and 4. Members nominated from District 2 are R. Dale Washburn and Oscar Murphy and nominated from District 4 are Roger Kepford and Floyd Cluff. In addition to election of officers, a report on the year's operation will be given and next year's business will be discussed.

Kenneth Kinsler, manager, announced that the Cooperative sold 10,460,880 kwh in 1956, an 8.9 per cent increase over 1955 at an average price of 2.45 cents per kwh and serving 1,689 members. The average farm use for the year was 6,052 kwh. The system operated 462 miles of distribution line at the year's end.

The board announced that capital dividends will be distributed at the annual meeting for the year of 1949.

The present board is composed of Mr. Clay, president; Dale Parsell, vice president; Fred C. Loyer, secretary; Harvey Eichhorn, Homer Kile, Oscar Murphy and Floyd Cluff, directors.

Delaware Deputy Held Prisoner by Sunbury Resident

DELAWARE — Paul Johnson, 29, of Sunbury pleaded guilty in Delaware Municipal Court Monday to a charge of pointing and aiming loaded firearms at Deputy Sheriff Thomas Wright.

Johnson was released under $150 bond and is to appear for sentencing Saturday morning. Maximum sentence under the charge is one year in the county jail and a $100 fine.

Deputy Wright, a resident of Sunbury, said he was called to Johnson's home about 3:30 Sunday morning to investigate a domestic fight. He said that when he reached the house Johnson poked a .38 cal. pistol in his ribs, ordered him to sit in a chair and later threatened him with a shotgun.

The deputy escaped from the house, he said, when Johnson went into another room to phone his wife whom he had previously forced from the house. The deputy later returned with Sheriff Harley Wornstaff and two other deputies to make the arrest. Johnson offered no resistance to arrest, the sheriff said.

Uprising in Mauretania Feared

France's Colonial Woes Spread to West Africa

PARIS (NANA) — The French are treating the new outbreak of unrest in their West African possession of Mauretania as far more serious than an ordinary disturbance in a remote and little known colony.

Both military and civilian officials here are convinced it is the start of an all-out attempt by pan-Arab nationalists to pull out the rug from under France, not only in North Africa, but in the vast French territories north and south of the equator, as well.

Gen. Paul Ely, the French army chief of staff, has received orders to crush the rebels and halt incursions of anti-French "liberation" bands from neighboring Morocco, even if it temporarily means withdrawing substantial numbers of troops from strife-torn Algeria. This is some gauge of how concerned the French are.

"THE BRUSH FIRE must be stopped," a high-ranking army officer here said. "Mauretania is the link between Arab Africa and Negro Africa. If it is successfully penetrated, all the rest of Africa to the south will be infected very quickly."

The French have kept a troubled eye on the primitive but potentially valuable colony for nearly a year and have been quietly sending troop reinforcements there for some time. But they view the new incidents, which have included daring ambushes of French patrols, as instigated not merely by Moroccan nationalists who openly claim much of Mauretania as their own, but also as a plot laid in Cairo.

Even though French officials nowadays tend to see the hand of Cairo behind many unpleasant things, there is some evidence to suggest they are not wholly wrong this time. Certainly the Moroccan extremists who are doing their best to stir up Mauretania's previously unexpressed desire for national independence or, better still, for merger with Morocco, parrot the Nasser line and have been in close contact with Egyptian authorities.

THE FRENCH are also skeptical at the coincidence that fresh outbreaks occurred in northern Mauretania only a few days after Moroccan officials conferred in Spain with the touring King Saud of Saudi Arabia and his entourage.

According to French authorities, Arab nationalists have three main purposes in creating this new trouble spot. First, they are out to weaken further France's military and financial positions, already badly strained, and thus brighten the chances of a complete French surrender in Algeria.

As the French see it, they are also anxious to wreck the former's ambitious plans for the rapid economic development of the Sahara, a region which includes a portion of Mauretania. A successful start for the vast Sahara plan would mean all too clearly that France would never consent to leave Africa.

NASSER AND the Arab nationalists are also accused here of hoping to demoralize the new project giving a large measure of internal political autonomy to all French "black" colonies in Africa within the next year or two. The Arabs, the French believe, want to assume a dominating role themselves in equatorial Africa. They are counting on the mass conversion in recent years of millions of African Negroes to the Moslem religion as a guarantee of their success.

But every indication here is that the French mean to hold onto the Mauretanian gateway to black Africa just as tenaciously as they have so far held onto Algeria. They insist that the Maures, who are a strange mixture of Berber and Negro strains, black of skin but lacking Negroid features, have little feeling of kinship with the Moroccans and no desire to break with France.

Man Killed by Train

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP) — A New York Central train struck an automobile at a crossing four miles west of here Monday, killing Max C. Griest, 58, Oak Harbor automobile dealer, who was alone in the car.

Health Conference Held in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — City health officials and community leaders from all parts of the country confer here today on health techniques in all sizes of cities.

The one-day meeting is a preamble to the annual National Health Forum, an omnibus conference sponsored by the National Health Council, which starts tomorrow.

The session today comprises a series of lectures and panel discussions. Delegates this afternoon split up into clinic groups to talk out problems posed in morning lectures.

Dr. John D. Porterfield, special assistant to the U. S. Surgeon general and former Ohio director of mental hygiene and correction, is slated to address delegates at a dinner tonight.

Physicians Hope New Drug Can Save Infant

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Doctors watched a 5-month-old boy today to see if an experimental drug can relieve his breathing difficulty and save his life.

The new drug — pancreatic dornase — was flown to St. Louis Monday night from a drug firm in Philadelphia for James Hunter, who underwent heart surgery a week ago.

Doctors at Cardinal Glennon Memorial Hospital said it will be a day or so before the drug's effectiveness can be determined.

Prayer Room Suggested For Ohio's Statehouse

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Senate committee has recommended that a prayer and meditation room be created in Ohio's statehouse.

The Senate Finance Committee approved the proposal Monday, but stripped the bill of the $25,000 appropriation originally accompanying it. If the Legislature approves the measure, the appropriation will be included in the biennial additions and betterments bill.

Sen. Lowell Fess (R-Greene) introduced the proposal. The prayer and meditation room, if built here, would be similar to the one in the Capitol at Washington.
